Crimson Tide head football coach Nick Saban's commitment to building the total program at the University of Alabama embodies UA's Built by Bama theme. The Crimson Tide football team has achieved astonishing success during his five years at the helm in Tuscaloosa. Saban has reestablished Alabama among the nation's elite with two BCS National Championships and one Southeastern Conference title while amassing 48 wins over the past four seasons. His commitment to his student-athletes reaches far beyond the football field. It extends into the classroom and the community.

GAMEDAY ENTRANCE

The press area in the Bryant-Denny Stadium Press Box is located on the second level on the west side of the Stadium. The entrance to the press box is through the press elevator, located near Gate 11. The elevator will be in operation three hours prior to kickoff. Media Will Call is at ticket window 8 located at the northwest corner of the end zone complex adjacent to Gate 3 of Bryant-Denny Stadium.

RADIO/TELEVISION/COACHES

Located on the main press level, there is a primary live television broadcast booth and a booth available for tape-delayed telecasts. This level also accommodates booths for both home and visiting radio crews and Alabama and visiting coaches' booths. Only those with appropriate passes will be admitted to these booths.

CREDENTIALS

Media credentials are available only to working members of the media who represent accredited outlets who are actively covering the event. All credential requests must be made through the Crimson Tide's online credentialing system. For further information, contact Roots Woodruff at rwoodruff@ua.edu or Josh Maxson at jmaxson@ua.edu.

PHOTO DECK

This level, located in front of the main press box at Bryant-Denny Stadium, offers ample space for still photographers, network TV cameras and coaches' film crews.

SIDELINES

Alabama follows NCAA and SEC rules regarding media representatives on the sidelines.

- Credentials must be visible in order to gain access to the field.
- All photographers/videographers on the sideline must be there in a working capacity with proper equipment.
- Photographers are not permitted to shoot between the 25-yard lines.
- No credentials will be issued to freelance photographers, cutline writers, equipment carriers or radio station representatives, except for the two teams' broadcast originating networks.
- Affiliate TV stations are not allowed the services of a grip and credentials will not be provided for them.
- No one under 18 years of age will be issued a credential for sideline access.
- Photographers or videographers are considered working members of the media and they are to refrain from cheering or talking to players, coaches or officials.
- Photographers should contact Associate SID Roots Woodruff for further information at (205) 348-2088.
- Photographers may send photos from the Alabama Photo Room located in the south end on the field level of Bryant-Denny Stadium. Contact Roots Woodruff to reserve space.
- Not conforming to any of the above listed guidelines will result in the immediate dismissal from the stadium by Event Management staff.

PRESS BOX SERVICES

Complete individual and team statistics, running play-by-play, postgame coaches' quotes and game facts will be distributed via e-mail to members of the working media. There will be a limited number of printed notes packages available in the media relations work room in the hallway of the press box, but that number will not facilitate the number of media outlets covering the game. Alabama's gameday notes and a flip card are located at each seat throughout the press box.

Alabama's game notes, opponent notes and conference notes will be provided in a PDF via e-mail on Thursday evening. A pregame meal will be served beginning 90 minutes before kickoff. Soft drinks will be available throughout the game.

PARKING

Media parking is located in lots nearby Bryant-Denny Stadium. Because of limited space, requests for parking should be made with credential requests. It should not be assumed that parking passes will be provided with all media credentials.

WIRELESS/ETHERNET INTERNET

Wireless internet is available in the Bryant-Denny Stadium press box. In addition, a limited number of Ethernet lines are also available.

PRO SCOUTS

Despite severe space limitations, scouts of professional football teams are issued press credentials. Credentials should be requested two weeks prior to the date of the game to guarantee availability and should be requested online. For further details contact Doug Walker at dwalker@ua.edu.

SATELLITE TRUCKS

Any outlet using a satellite truck must request satellite truck access and have a truck in place at least five hours prior to kickoff (example: 2 p.m. for a 7 p.m. kickoff). Satellite trucks arriving less than five hours prior to kickoff may be denied access to the stadium. Requests for parking area for satellite trucks must be made by 12 p.m. (noon) Wednesday prior to Saturday games and must be confirmed through Doug Walker or Roots Woodruff. No other vehicles will be allowed to park with the satellite truck and all credentials for personnel must be included in the online request.

SEC DIGITAL NETWORK

The SEC now offers access to free licensed game highlights and other newsworthy event video, including select live streams, through the SEC Affiliate Network. This annual program is exclusively available to the accredited media. It covers all teams and all sports for both men's and women's teams. Video is delivered through a customizable digital video player immediately after televised games/events conclude. Participating news affiliates can also select individual clips to insert directly into online stories. Television stations also have access to an FTP account to run content on-air. The SEC Affiliate Network is managed through XOS Digital. To join, please request a participation form from the program's director, Anna Marie Neri, at aneri@xosdigital.com or at 407-670-5049.

INTERVIEW POLICIESHEAD COACH NICK SABAN

All interview requests for head coach Nick Saban are coordinated through Associate A.D. for Football Communications Jeff Purinton at (205) 348-3631 or jpurinton@ua.edu. Coach Saban will meet with the media each Monday preceding a game at 11:45 a.m. (CT) in the Naylor Stone Media Room on the second floor of the Mal M. Moore Athletic Building. Coach Saban will participate in the SEC head coaches' weekly teleconference with the other 11 league coaches each Wednesday at 10:35 a.m. (CT). He will also meet with the media immediately following practice on Wednesday afternoon in the Naylor Stone Media Room. In addition, Coach Saban is available by request between Noon and 1 p.m. on Tuesday through Thursday.

PLAYERS

All player interviews must be coordinated through the Alabama Communications Office and must be requested at least one day in advance. Several players will be available each week following Coach Saban's Monday press conference, if their class schedule permits. Player interviews should be requested through Assistant SID Josh Maxson. In addition to Monday's press luncheon, players are also available following Tuesday and Wednesday practices. Team locker rooms are off limits to media representatives at all times. Media members are not permitted to call players at any time or talk to players on Sunday, Thursday or Friday.

POSTGAME

The University of Alabama observes and abides by Southeastern Conference policy regarding equal access to all members of the working media. Coach Saban will conduct his postgame news conference at home games approximately 10 minutes after the game in the Media Room located on the second floor of the North End Zone complex. His news conference also can be heard in the press box. The Alabama locker room is closed. Requested players will be brought to the Media Room following Coach Saban's postgame news conference. The opposing coach will conduct his postgame news conference in the South End Zone Media Room adjoining the visiting team locker room.

PRACTICE ACCESS

Alabama football practices are open to the media on Monday through Wednesday from the beginning of practice until team or group work begins. Media members should request to have their name placed on a practice pass list for admission to practices.

ALABAMA SATELLITE FEED

Video highlights of Alabama football are available via satellite each Monday during the regular season. Contact Alabama for times and FTP information.

Previewing the 2012 Alabama Crimson Tide

The Alabama Crimson Tide returns 10 starters and 43 lettermen for the 2012 season with 20 lettermen and six starters on offense, 19 lettermen and four starters on defense while all three starting specialists return.

Headlining the returning starters on the offensive side of the football for the Crimson Tide is the bulk of the offensive line in Outland Trophy winner Barrett Jones, Chance Warmack, Anthony Steen and D.J. Fluker. The veteran offensive line group boasts an impressive 95 career starts. The Tide offense also returns the offensive MVP of the BCS National Championship Game in quarterback AJ McCarron and three-year starter Michael Williams at tight end.

The defense features at least one returning starter on each level and a combined 74 starts among defensive linemen Damion Square and Jesse Williams, linebacker Nico Johnson and safety Robert Lester. Throw in cornerback Dee Milliner who has started 16 games in the last two seasons and C.J. Mosley, who has started at linebacker in nickel and dime situations, and Alabama returns 99 starts on the defensive side of the football.

Alabama is also armed with the nation's No. 1 recruiting class, a group that - combined with the returning roster - gives the Crimson Tide a potent squad that could be primed for a run at a Southeastern Conference title or another national championship.

The 2012 schedule is one of the toughest in the nation and will provide Alabama fans with some of the most exciting games in college football. The Crimson Tide slate features a marquee non-conference game with Michigan in the season opener at the Cowboys Classic at Cowboys Stadium in Arlington, Texas. A dangerous trip to Arkansas opens the SEC slate on September 16 before Alabama welcomes Mississippi to Tuscaloosa on Sept. 28. The Tide then welcomes SEC newcomer Missouri to the league with UA's first visit to Columbia, Mo., since 1978. It will be two straight SEC road games as Alabama goes to Tennessee the next weekend to face the Vols before coming home for a tilt with Mississippi State at Bryant-Denny Stadium on October 27. A renewal of the one of the country's most fierce rivalries is on tap for November 3 as the Tide visits Baton Rouge, La., to face the LSU Tigers for the third time in a year. Texas A&M, also a new member of the SEC, makes its first visit to Tuscaloosa on Nov. 10, and its first game against the Tide since 1988 in a series the Tide leads 3-1. The Iron Bowl vs. Auburn is scheduled for November 24 at Bryant-Denny Stadium.

SNAPSHOTS:

AJ McCarron will lead the Alabama offense in 2012 after completing 66.8 percent of his passes for 2,634 yards and 16 touchdowns in 2011.

OFFENSE

Alabama's offensive backfield must replace a record-breaking running back but a veteran offensive line and the emergence of quarterback AJ McCarron gives the Crimson Tide offense optimism heading into 2012. McCarron won the quarterback job in 2011 and developed his game and his confidence throughout the season, culminating with his offensive MVP performance in the 2012 BCS National Championship Game. He threw for 2,634 yards with 16 touchdowns and only five interceptions while completing 66.8 percent of his passes.

For the second straight year, UA returns four starters along the offensive line that can open holes with the best. Barrett Jones will again compete for first-team All-America honors and the Outland Trophy, but this time he will also be in the mix for the Rimington Award after moving to center in the spring. Chance Warmack and D.J. Fluker, who should also contend for All-America recognition, return for their third season in the trenches. Sophomore Cyrus Kouandjio should be the fifth starter along the line, taking over at left tackle. However, a bevy of talented linemen will also be battling for roles along the Tide's front, including Arie Kouandjio, Austin Shepherd, Chad Lindsay, Ryan Kelly, Issac Luatua, Kellen Williams and several others.

With Richardson gone at running back, Alabama will look to junior Eddie Lacy, who rushed for 7.1 yards per carry and seven touchdowns in 2011. Joining Lacy is fellow junior Jalston Fowler, who carried 56 times a year ago, averaging 6.9 yards per touch and scored four times. Redshirt freshman Dee Hart and true freshman T.J. Yeldon provide the Tide immense talent and incomparable depth at the position.

Alabama must replace the production of Darius Hanks and Marquis Maze on the outside, but Kenny Bell, Christion Jones, Kevin Norwood and DeAndrew White form a dangerous group at wide receiver. At tight end, Michael Williams provides a bruising run blocker on the edge and a skilled receiver. Joining Williams is a trio of young and talented tight ends, including Harrison Jones, Brian Vogler and Malcolm Faciane.

SNAPSHOTS:

Nico Johnson returns to anchor Alabama's linebacker corps. He has played in 37 career games and made 108 tackles with 14.5 tackles for loss in his time at the Capstone.

DEFENSE

The Alabama defense proved to be one of the best in college football history in 2011, leading all four major defensive statistical categories. Alabama will need to replace seven of those starters, accounting for 188 career starts. Defensive coordinator Kirby Smart returns four starters and two others that have been at least part-time starters in the past. The Tide will have at least one starter on each level of the defense with Damion Square and Jesse Williams anchoring the line of scrimmage while Nico Johnson directs the linebackers and safety Robert Lester orchestrates the secondary. Gone are the likes of All-Americans Mark Barron, Dont'a Hightower, Dre Kirkpatrick, DeQuan Menzie and Courtney Upshaw, along with nose guard Josh Chapman and linebacker Jerrell Harris.

Lester returns the most experience with 26 career starts at safety. He was a second-team All-American in 2010 and boasts 10 career interceptions and an outstanding understanding of the complex Alabama defense. Joining Lester in the secondary is 2010 starting cornerback and a veteran of 16 career starts, Dee Milliner. John Fulton and Bradley Sylvie will battle junior college transfers Deion Belue and Travell Dixon for playing time alongside Milliner at corner. Sophomores Vinnie Sunseri and Ha Ha Clinton-Dix showed poise and ability in the spring at safety, but they will be challenged by juniors Nick Perry and Jarrick Williams for playing time. The secondary will likely also see contributions from the likes of Jabriel Washington, Caleb Castille, Jerrod Bierbower and Ranzell Watkins.

Johnson is the lone returning starter in the linebacker corps, but junior C.J. Mosley has the experience to be in that conversation as well with nine career starts while getting the majority of the playing time over the past two years in passing situations. Johnson and Mosley lead all returners in career tackles with 108 and 104, respectively, after sharing the snaps the past two years. Reinforcements at linebacker come from the lines of sophomores Trey DePriest and Adrain Hubbard. DePriest made 25 tackles as a true freshman in 2011 while Hubbard played in nine games and made nine stops. Jonathan Atchison, Xzavier Dickson and Tana Patrick all return experience and will battle for a starting spot while true freshmen Ryan Anderson and Dillion Lee arrived in January and could push for playing time.

The defensive front will be occupied by Square and Williams with a bevy of talented youngsters fighting for playing time. Williams is expected to make the move inside to nose guard to occupy double teams after 24 tackles and four tackles for loss at end in 2011. Square, who has 19 career starts, begins his third year at end after making 32 tackles, including seven tackles for loss last season. Defensive ends Ed Stinson and Quinton Dial could very easily see starting time and will be vital in defensive line production as they rotate along the front. Jeffrey Pagan saw action last season and has the ability to add to his contributions in 2012 while LaMichael Fanning and D.J. Pettway redshirted a year ago and have the talent to make an immediate impact. Nose guard will also have good depth with the likes of Brandon Ivory and January enrollee Alphonse Taylor.

SNAPSHOTS:

Carson Tinker begins his third season as the Crimson Tide's starting long snapper.

SPECIAL TEAMS

The all-important specialists return almost completely intact from 2011, losing only punt and kickoff returner Marquis Maze and kickoff return man Trent Richardson. The Crimson Tide had to break in new starters at every position the last two seasons but those players developed into solid contributors in 2010 and 2011.

The combination of Jeremy Shelley and Cade Foster handled the place-kicking duties last season. Both players battled inconsistency, but the kicking game came through for the Crimson Tide when it was needed in the end. Shelley made 21-of-27 field goals (77.8 percent) with a long of 44 yards while handling most attempts inside 40 yards and all of the extra points (52 of 54). He set a BCS record with five field goals in the national championship game as the Tide's special teams were key in a 21-0 win over LSU. Foster made 2-of-9 field goals and served as UA's long-range kicker while also serving as the Tide's kickoff specialist. True freshman Adam Griffith could provide a challenge in 2012 as he arrives on campus as one of the nation's top place-kicking recruits.

Cody Mandell probably will handle the punting duties for the third straight season after averaging 39.3 yards on 39 kicks last season, including 17 fair catches, 11 inside the 20-yard line and two over 50 yards. In 2010, he landed 13 inside the 20-yard line, had nine over 50 yards while forcing 20 fair catches. Carson Tinker will again handle the snapping duties after making good on 251 of 253 career snaps. He serves as the snapper on both long snaps (punts) and short snaps (field goals and extra points).

The biggest need in the special teams units will be replacing starters on punt and kickoff returns. Christian Jones and DeAndrew White both figure to play into the Tide's plan at punt returner and are the only two players on the roster with any collegiate experience at the position. Jones and White should get a chance at kickoffs, along with Dee Milliner and a host of other talented skill players.

2011 (JUNIOR):

Williams found his footing after just one spring on campus and earned the starting job at defensive end while moving inside to tackle in passing downs in a four-man front ... started all 13 games and did a great job of stopping the run (UA led the nation allowing just 72.2 ypg) and pushing the pocket ... finished with 24 tackles ... had four tackles for loss (-10 yards), three quarterback hurries and one pass deflection and half of a sack (-1 yard). Kent State: Started his first game at the Capstone ... recorded one quarterback hurry. Penn State: Registered two tackles with one solo stop in UA's win at No. 23 PSU ... also batted down a pass. North Texas: Had one assisted tackle as the Tide limited the Mean Green to 169 total yards and recorded the team's first shutout since 2009. Arkansas: Played easily his most productive game to date with a career-best five tackles and two tackles for loss ... made four solo stops ... dropped Hog running backs behind the line of scrimmage two times for a loss of seven yards ... helped the Tide limit the Razorbacks to a series-low 17 yards rushing. Florida: In his first SEC road start made two solo tackles and helped limit the Gators to 15 yards rushing. Vanderbilt: Had one assisted tackle, which was a sack that went for a loss of one yard. Mississippi: Notched one solo tackle for loss as the Crimson Tide allowed just 28 yards rushing and 141 total yards. Tennessee: Started and helped limit the Vols to 155 total yards. LSU: Started and made five assisted tackles to help limit the No. 1 Tigers to just 239 total yards and nine points. Mississippi State: Made two early tackles before leaving the game in the second quarter with a shoulder injury. Georgia Southern: Rehabbed his shoulder hard to get back for the game vs. the Eagles only to fall victim to food poisoning, which limited his snaps ... did start and make three tackles, one solo before going to the bench. Auburn: Notched a quarterback hurry and was very effective at holding the line of scrimmage in the 42-14 win in the Iron Bowl ... helped limit the Tigers to just 140 total yards ... AU had just 44 yards — 25 rushing — through three quarters and gained the rest after the Tide had already locked up the win in the fourth quarter. LSU (BCS National Championship Game): Registered two assisted tackles as the Crimson Tide captured the school's 14th national championship ... helped limit then-No. 1 LSU to 92 yards of total offense and just 39 yards on the ground.

HIGH SCHOOL AND PERSONAL DATA:

Williams joined the Crimson Tide after anchoring the defensive front at Western Arizona Community College in 2009 and 2010 ... enrolled for the spring semester at Alabama and participated in spring practice ... the defensive lineman hails from Brisbane, Australia ... was the No. 2 player in the Rivals.com 2011 JUCO Top 50 ... No. 10 in the SuperPrep JUCO 100 ... the four-star prospect made 30 tackles in just seven games in 2010 with six tackles for loss (-29 yards) and two sacks (-12 yards) ... led a defensive line that allowed just 48.64 rushing yards per game to rank second in the NJCAA ... also deflected two passes and recorded one interception as a sophomore ... as a freshman in 2009, Williams registered 46 tackles in 11 games with seven tackles for loss and four sacks ... a two-time All-Region I selection and named to the All-Western States team at WACC ... originally signed with Hawai'i in 2008 ... grew up playing rugby and basketball in Australia before taking up football at the age of 15 ... quickly took to the game while attending Cavendish Road State High School and playing for the Bayside Ravens and Queensland Sun Devils ... chose the Crimson Tide over LSU, Oklahoma State, Southern California, Arkansas, Oregon State, Mississippi and Tennessee.

NICK SABAN

A MAN OF VISION WHO HAS A PROVEN RECORD OF CHAMPIONSHIP SUCCESS, UNIVERSITY OF ALABAMA HEAD COACH NICK SABAN HAS BROUGHT TO ALABAMA FOOTBALL A COMMITMENT TO BUILDING THE TOTAL PROGRAM.

Beginning his sixth season in Tuscaloosa, his uncompromising dedication to excellence in every phase of the program has resulted in the school's 13th and 14th national championships and the foundation has been set to yield long-term success for the Crimson Tide. A four-time National Coach of the Year, Saban has achieved resounding success as a head coach and has earned a reputation as an outstanding tactician, leader, organizer and motivator. Those qualities have sparked impressive turnarounds at every stop of his career. Saban's consistent approach and disciplined leadership are the reasons his teams are known for exhibiting grit, determination and resilience, often overcoming adversity to achieve victory.

COACH SABAN

Saban has compiled a 141-54-1 (.722) record as a college head coach and has gone 48-6 (.889) in his last four seasons in Tuscaloosa, which includes a 28-4 mark in regular season conference play. In 2011, the Tide reached the 10-win milestone for the fourth consecutive season under Saban, leaving Alabama (32) second behind Oklahoma (33) for the most 10-win seasons in college football.

The 2011 squad produced one of the most dominant defenses in the history of college football and captured Alabama's 14th National Championship with a 21-0 victory over LSU in the BCS National Championship Game. The Tide defense led the nation in all major categories, becoming the second team since national statistics began being kept and the first since 1986 (Oklahoma) to accomplish this feat. Alabama allowed just 8.2 points per game, 183.6 total yards, 72.2 rushing yards, 111.5 passing yards and a 83.7 pass efficiency defense. UA finished with a 12-1 record.

His 2011 senior class accomplished something no other Tide class has done, winning a school-record 48 games over the span of four seasons. That mark also equals the SEC record for wins over a four-year period (Florida, 2006-09). In addition, Alabama extended a streak of consecutive weeks in the AP Top 25 to 64 weeks, the longest since the mid 1990s when UA was ranked in 71 straight polls. Seven members of the 2011 Crimson Tide (including five on defense) were recognized as first-team All-Americans by major media outlets, while Barrett Jones took home Alabama's third Outland Trophy and Heisman Trophy finalist Trent Richardson received UA's first Doak Walker Award. The team was also recognized with the Disney Spirit Award, which was presented to snapper Carson Tinker, for the team's response to the community following the tornado that devastated Tuscaloosa on April 27, 2011. Jones also captured the ARA Sportsmanship Award and the Wuerffel Trophy. Saban's efforts also earned him the Bobby Bowden National Coach of the Year Award, the second such honor in the past three years. The Tide also had extensive success in the classroom with 38 SEC Academic Honor Roll selections, a league record, and produced an Academic All-American in Jones.

Despite a young roster that listed only eight scholarship seniors, the 2010 Alabama team finished with its third consecutive 10-win season following a dominant 49-7 win over Michigan State in the Capital One Bowl. Five players were named first team All-SEC by either the AP or the league coaches, while six more earned second-team All-SEC honors. Most impressively, two players (quarterback Greg McElroy and Barrett Jones) were named first-team ESPN Academic All-Americans, which marked two consecutive years in which Alabama boasted two of the three ESPN Academic All-Americans in the SEC. McElroy, the ESPN Academic All-American of the Year, was an National Football Foundation National-Scholar-Athlete as a finalist for the prestigious Campbell Trophy.

The 2009 season at Alabama turned out to be one of the most memorable in program history as the Tide compiled a perfect 14-0 mark and won the 2009 BCS National Championship by defeating Texas by a score of 37-21 at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif. Alabama earned a spot in the title game with a resounding 32-13 win over defending national champion Florida in the SEC Championship Game as the Tide moved to No. 1 in both major polls. The SEC Championship was the program's 22nd – by far the most in league history.

On December 12, 2009, more history was made for both Alabama and Saban when running back Mark Ingram became the first Heisman Trophy winner for both. Saban's 2009 squad was prominent when it came to other honors as well as Rolando McClain received the Butkus Award as the nation's top linebacker and six players earned first-team AP All-American status – a college football record.

After the perfect season concluded, Saban was presented with the first Bobby Bowden National Coach of the Year Award. In addition to the on-field success, the 2009 Tide active roster featured a nation's best 13 players who had already graduated. That number increased to 22 players with degrees for the bowl game.

Saban's first UA team finished 7-6 in 2007, but the 2008 season saw a different Alabama squad take the field. Saban's influence had taken hold in Tuscaloosa and, behind a small and united senior class along with a talented group of newcomers, the Tide returned to national prominence. Alabama developed a reputation as the most physical football team in the country and methodically dominated the competition. Saban produced the largest win increase from year one to year two in school history as the Tide went from a seven-win team in 2007 to 12 wins in 2008. Alabama swept through the regular season schedule with a 12-0 record, moving to No. 1 in all of the polls and capturing the SEC Western Division Championship before falling late to Florida in a hard-fought SEC Championship Game. team's efforts earned them a trip to the Allstate Sugar Bowl for the 13th time in school history. Saban was named the 2008 Home Depot Coach of the Year at the ESPN Awards Show in Orlando and won several other national coach of the year honors including the FWAA/Eddie Robinson, Associated Press, The Sporting News, Walter Camp Football Foundation, and Liberty Mutual.

Lessons learned from the 2007 season, which was capped with a win over Colorado in the Independence Bowl, no doubt carried into spring and summer preparations for the 2008 run. The win also continued an impressive streak for Saban as he has never had a losing season as a college head coach. Of the six losses in 2007, none was by more than seven points. In addition to an improvement in the win-loss column from the year prior, the 2008 signing class was rated by many analysts as the best in the country.

Off the field, the focus on academics by Saban and his staff made an immediate impact as the 2007 team put together one of the finest fall semesters in school history. The freshman class set a solid foundation for their future at UA as they led the way with an impressive combined GPA of 3.098 in the fall.

Before arriving in Tuscaloosa, Saban's most recent college head coaching stint was a five-season run at LSU which produced a record of 48-16 (.750), one national championship (2003), two Southeastern Conference championships, three SEC West Division championships, and a 3-2 record in bowl games, including two Sugar Bowl victories and a Peach Bowl win. The Tigers constructed a 28-12 (.700) record against SEC opponents under Saban's guidance. He was named the 2003 National Coach of the Year by the Associated Press and earned both the Paul W. "Bear" Bryant National Coach of the Year Award and the Eddie Robinson Coach of the Year Award by the Football Writers Association of America. Saban was named SEC Coach of the Year twice (by The Birmingham News in 2001 and by the Associated Press in 2003).

Saban took over the Alabama program after serving two seasons at the helm of the Miami Dolphins. Saban's teams showed marked improvement over the unit he inherited. Taking over a team that finished 4-12 in 2004, Saban led the 2005 Dolphins to a 9-7 record, the third-biggest turnaround in the NFL that season and the second-highest victory turnaround for a Dolphins team in any non-strike season. Most impressively, the Dolphins finished 2005 on a six-game winning streak, the longest streak in the NFL that season.

Prior to his stint at Miami, Saban's impact on the LSU program transcended the success on the field. His commitment to building the total program, placing education first, instilling discipline and responsibility on and off the field transformed the Tigers into a force on the national stage. LSU produced 84 Academic All-SEC honorees in Saban's five seasons, including 25 members of the 2003 national championship squad. LSU's graduation rate for football players improved dramatically under his watch and two players, offensive tackle Rodney Reed (2002 and 2003) and offensive lineman Rudy Niswanger (2004) earned first-team Academic All-America honors. Linebacker Bradie James earned a postgraduate scholarship from the National Football Foundation in 2003.

Saban also spearheaded a $15 million fundraising effort to fund a new academic center for student-athletes at LSU, and he and his players were active in community involvement in the Baton Rouge area, taking part in community service projects, visiting schools to mentor children and taking time to visit local hospitals on a regular basis. More than 50 of Saban's LSU players earned their college degrees, in addition to 28 who were selected in the NFL draft, including seven in both 2004 and 2006.

Named head coach at LSU on November 30, 1999, Saban led an immediate turnaround of a program that had suffered through seven losing seasons during the 1990s. His 48 victories over five seasons were the third-most among Division I-A head coaches during that time. Saban, Paul Dietzel and current LSU head coach Les Miles are the only coaches in the program's history to post multiple 10-win seasons. In addition, Saban, Dietzel and Bernie Moore are the only head coaches in Tiger history to win two SEC championships.

Saban's 2000 Tigers rebounded from two straight losing seasons to post an 8-4 season, capped by a 31-20 win over 15th-ranked Georgia Tech in the Peach Bowl. Home victories over Tennessee, Mississippi State and Alabama highlighted the season, along with a key road win at Mississippi.

The 2001 Tigers improved to 10-3 overall and won the program's first outright SEC title since 1986 with a 31-20 win over second-ranked Tennessee in the SEC Championship game. An impressive second half against the Volunteers was a trademark of Saban's coaching acumen as the Tigers outscored UT, 21-3, in the final half to erase a 17-10 deficit. The Tigers won the game despite the absence of starting quarterback Rohan Davey and running back LaBrandon Toefield.

Sparked by one of the most prolific offenses in the nation, a unit that averaged 451.5 yards per game, the Tigers capped the season with a 47-34 defeat of Big Ten champion Illinois in the Sugar Bowl, LSU's first victory in a New Year's Day bowl game since 1968.

Stifling defense was the trademark of the 2002 Tigers. LSU posted an 8-5 record and a second consecutive New Year's Day bowl appearance. The Tigers, who faced Texas in the Cotton Bowl, held opponents to less than 275 yards per game through the season's first six games and scored a school-record 30 or more points in six straight games that season. The Tigers barely missed winning a second consecutive SEC West Division title as a last-minute comeback by Arkansas in the regular season finale prevented LSU from another appearance in the SEC Championship game. That LSU team overcame the mid-season loss of starting quarterback Matt Mauck, free safety Damien James and Toefield in successive weeks to make a run at an SEC Western Division title.

Saban's philosophy of "out of yourself and into the team" paid huge dividends in 2003. The Tigers produced a 13-1 record, won their second SEC championship and earned the school's second national championship with a squad that was among the nation's most dominant on both sides of the line of scrimmage. The LSU offense scored a school-record 475 points (33.9 points per game) while holding 13 of 14 opponents to less than 20 points. LSU's defense ranked first nationally in points allowed per game (11.0) and total defense (252.0 yards per game). After a 7-1 start, LSU ended the season with six dominating victories by an average margin of 35-10. An impressive 34-13 victory over Georgia in the SEC title game paved LSU's way to an appearance in the Bowl Championship Series (BCS) Championship Game against top-ranked Oklahoma. The Tigers produced a dominant defensive effort against the Sooners in the Sugar Bowl, limiting OU to 154 yards of total offense in a 21-14 victory.

His final LSU team in 2004 overcame the loss of 13 players from the 2003 team who went on to NFL rosters, posting a 9-3 record while producing the SEC's best rushing offense (200.7 yards per game). The Tiger defense ranked third nationally during the regular season in total defense (249.9 yards per game) and passing defense (145.4 yards per game), allowing only 15.9 points per contest.

Over the last six games, the Tiger defense allowed only 12 points in the second half on the way to a berth in the Capital One Bowl in Orlando against Iowa. LSU's fourth consecutive January bowl berth, a first for the Tiger program.

Saban served as head coach at Michigan State from 1995-99, his second stint at the East Lansing school as he also spent 1983-87 as the Spartans' defensive coordinator/secondary coach. After playing in just one bowl game in the previous four years, Michigan State made four postseason appearances in Saban's five years at the helm. Saban led MSU to a 34-24-1 (.585) record.

In 1999, Saban led his final Spartans team to a No. 7 national ranking as MSU finished in a tie for second place in the Big Ten. The Spartans defeated Notre Dame, Michigan, Ohio State and Penn State in the same year for the first time since 1965 and recorded six wins at home for the first time since the 1912 season. The Spartans' performance that year landed them a spot in the Citrus Bowl. The Spartans led the Big Ten in rushing defense (77.0 yards per game) and total defense (299.0 yards per game) while ranking fifth nationally in rushing defense and 11th in total defense. The Spartans offense averaged 31.0 points per game.

Saban was the first coach in school history to put the Spartans in postseason bowl games in each of his first three seasons as he led the Spartans to the Independence Bowl in 1995, the Sun Bowl in 1996 and the Aloha Bowl in 1997.

Before joining the Spartans, Saban spent four seasons (1991-94) as defensive coordinator with the Cleveland Browns under head coach Bill Belichick. The Browns went from allowing the most points (462) in the NFL prior to Saban's arrival to allowing the fewest points (204) in the league in 1994, the sixth-fewest points surrendered in NFL history at the time. In each of Saban's four years guiding the Browns' defense, they never permitted an average of more than 19.2 points per game. He built a reputation as one of the finest defensive coaches in the league and also was heavily involved in the team's player personnel and scouting process.

Saban's first head coaching position came at the University of Toledo in 1990, as he guided the Rockets to a record of 9-2 that year, finishing as co-champions of the Mid-American Conference. The Rockets ranked among the NCAA leaders in both total defense (12th at 284.8 yards) and scoring defense (16th at 16.2 points), and missed posting an undefeated record by a mere five points.

Saban joined Toledo after serving as secondary coach with the Houston Oilers for two seasons under Jerry Glanville (1988-89), his first NFL coaching position. He quickly made an impact on the Oilers' defense, as the team's secondary tied for fourth in the AFC in 1988 with 21 interceptions and tied for second in the conference in 1989 with 22.

In his first stint at Michigan State, Saban served as secondary coach and defensive coordinator under George Perles from 1983 through 1987. Saban played an integral part in helping the Spartans to three postseason bowl appearances, including a Big Ten championship in 1987 and a 20-17 victory over Southern California in the 1988 Rose Bowl. Michigan State led the nation in rushing defense in 1987, allowing only 61.2 yards per game, and ranked second in scoring defense, permitting just 12.4 points.

A native of Fairmont, W.Va., Saban is a 1973 graduate of Kent State University where he earned a bachelor's degree in business. He earned a master's degree in sports administration from Kent State in 1975. Born October 31, 1951, Saban and his wife, the former Terry Constable, have two children, Nicholas and Kristen.

Saban co-authored Tiger Turnaround in 2001, a book documenting his first two years as head coach at LSU, and co-authored How Good Do You Want to Be? in 2005, a book that offers real-life principles for success at work and at home. In addition to work as fundraisers for LSU's Student-Athlete Academic Center, the Sabans supported several charitable and civic projects in Louisiana. The largest of those efforts was with the Children's Miracle Network, for which Terry and Nick raised more than $100,000 per year for children.

At Michigan State, the Sabans started the Nick's Kids Fund, which they have continued in Tuscaloosa, a vibrant example of their continuing concern for disadvantaged children. Since Nick and Terry arrived in Tuscaloosa, more than $2.5 million has been distributed to over 150 charities through the Nick's Kids Fund. The Sabans also built 14 homes with Project Team Up and Habitat for Humanity following the April 26, 2011, tornado that struck Tuscaloosa. In winning the 2008 Liberty Mutual Coach of the Year Award, Saban was awarded a $50,000 gift at the A-Day Game, which he designated for Nick's Kids, as well as an additional $20,000 gift for the University of Alabama scholarship fund. In June of 2008, the Sabans announced a $1 million gift to benefit Alabama's first-generation scholarship program. The gift has a special meaning to the Sabans as both Nick and Terry were both first-generation graduates.

The Sabans have also played a big role in tornado relief efforts in Tuscaloosa and the surrounding areas. Immediately following the devastating storm, Nick and Terry visited shelters as well as paid for and served meals to those in need. Through Nick's Kids, the Sabans have joined with Project Team Up in helping to rebuild homes lost in the tornado.

COACH SABAN

Terry Saban plays a vital role in many community outreach programs. She personally collected money on the Quad before 2007's A-Day game for the Enterprise tornado relief fund. Prior to the 2008 A-Day game, Terry helped collect money for the university's libraries. In June of 2008, Nick and Terry pledged $1 million to the university's scholarship fund and earmarked it for first-generation college students. Terry also plays an important role in the planning of many of the events for causes including the Nick's Kids Fund. Her eagerness to give back and her tireless devotion to help others is what makes Terry Saban one of the most admired members of the Crimson Tide family.

Most recently, Terry has been involved with Project Team Up in assisting with the rebuilding process from the tornado.

"When we travel throughout the state we recognize names and faces who share the same goal - to make the University of Alabama the very best it can be in every regard - on the field, in the classroom and in the eyes of the nation one day at a time. Thank you to all of the supporters and the University of Alabama community. Roll Tide!"

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH
RUNNING BACKS

Burton Burns beginning his sixth season with the Alabama Crimson Tide football program as associate head coach and running backs coach. The New Orleans native is regarded as one of the best coaches in college football and was named the Football Scoop Running Backs Coach of the Year following the 2008 season.

Few in college football can say they have coached a Heisman Trophy finalist; however Burns can claim a pair in the past three seasons, including the 2009 recipient Mark Ingram and 2011 finalist Trent Richardson.

Under Burns, the 2011 Crimson Tide rushing offense ranked 16th in the nation, and first in the Southeastern Conference, collecting 214.5 yards per game. In addition to being a Heisman finalist, Richardson won the Doak Walker Award as the nation's top running back and was named the SEC Offensive Player of the Year, ranking fifth in the nation and first in the league with 129.2 yards on the ground per outing. He collected 201 rushing touchdowns this season, setting the school record, and tying him for second in SEC history. He equaled the school and SEC record with 24 total touchdowns. Joining Richardson in the Alabama backfield was Eddie Lacy, who finished the season ninth in the SEC with 56.2 rushing yards per game and seven total touchdowns.

In 2010, Alabama's ground game accumulated 2,378 yards rushing to rank 29th in the country. Playing in just 11 games each, Ingram led the way with 875 yards and 13 scores followed by Richardson's 700 yards with six touchdowns. With two scores against Michigan State in the Capital One Bowl, Ingram set the Alabama career rushing touchdown record at 42. He finished his career fourth on the career rushing yardage list with 3,261 yards in three seasons. Both Ingram and Richardson were explosive in the passing game as well. Richardson was fourth on the team with 266 yards on 23 catches (4 TDs), while Ingram has added 21 catches for 282 yards and a touchdown.

Under Burns' guidance in 2009, Ingram was awarded Alabama's first Heisman Trophy and earned unanimous All-America honors. Ingram set the school's single-season rushing record with 1,658 yards and 17 touchdowns while adding 32 receptions for 334 yards and three more scores. Richardson, a true freshman, was the team's second-leading rusher (642 yards, 6 TD) and was named a Freshman All-SEC selection. The Tide also got some valuable production in 2009, especially on third downs, from senior Roy Upchurch. Upchurch earned an invite to the prestigious Senior Bowl at the conclusion of the season. In the BCS National Championship Game against Texas, Ingram and Richardson both rushed for 100-plus yards to help lead Alabama to the school's 13th title.

Burns also developed one of the nation's strongest running games in 2008 as Alabama finished third in the SEC and 30th nationally with an average of 184.6 rushing yards per game. Glen Coffee, a first-team All-SEC selection and third round draft pick of the San Francisco 49ers, led the way with 1,383 yards on the ground. That single-season total then tied for second in school history and was third in the conference. In addition, Ingram was eighth in the SEC in rushing (728 yards), captured Freshman All-SEC honors and set a Tide rookie record with 12 rushing touchdowns.

In his first year at Alabama, Burns helped first-year tailback Terry Grant set school records for rushing yards (891) and touchdowns (8) by a freshman in a season. Grant was a three-time SEC Freshman of the Week honoree, and was named to the SEC All-Freshman team as well as The Sporting News Freshman All-American team (honorable mention).

An assistant coach at Clemson University for eight seasons before coming to Alabama, Burns was a major factor in producing six of the top 10 offenses in Clemson history as running backs coach for the Tigers. Burns tutored star runners such as 2005 ACC Rookie of the Year James Davis, 2006 freshman record-setter C.J. Spiller, Reggie Merriweather, Travis Zachery and Duane Coleman at Clemson and former New York Jet Jerald Sowell at Tulane. In 2006, Davis led the Tigers with 1,187 rushing yards on 203 carries and scored 17 touchdowns, while Spiller had 938 rushing yards and 10 touchdowns. The Tigers averaged 5.7 yards per carry during the '06 regular season.

Burns spent eight seasons with head coach Tommy Bowden at Clemson after a four-year stint at Tulane that concluded with a 12-0 season in 1998.

Over 14 seasons as a college assistant coach, Burns has regularly produced versatile running backs that have been effective in every phase of the game. His players have proven to be equally effective as pass catchers, as well as in the running game.

Burns, 58, spent nine seasons as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Saint Augustine High School in New Orleans, La., before joining Bowden's staff at Tulane. Burns helped lead Saint Augustine to district titles in 1987, 1992 and 1993, his second stint at the school. Burns' first experience as a coach also was at Saint Augustine, where he served as an assistant from 1977-79 and helped the school win three more district championships on the way to consecutive state titles in 1978-79. Burns also coached at New Orleans' Booker T. Washington High School in 1980 before a five-year stint as an assistant coach at Southern University in Baton Rouge from 1981-85.

As a player, Burns played fullback (1971-75) at the University of Nebraska under head coach Tom Osborne. A member of three Cornhusker teams that won at least nine games, Burns participated in the Orange Bowl, Cotton Bowl and Sugar Bowl as a player. He earned a bachelor's degree in education from Nebraska in 1976. Burns is married to the former Connie Winder. The couple has three daughters, Amber, Christy and Erin, and a son, Damon.

WIDE RECEIVERS RECRUITING COORDINATOR

MIKE GROH

Mike Groh returned to the Alabama staff in February of 2011 serving as wide receivers coach and recruiting coordinator. Groh, a former quarterback at the University of Virginia, joined the Crimson Tide coaching staff after serving as the quarterbacks coach at Louisville last season. He spent eight years at Virginia (2001-08) with three of those seasons coaching the wide receivers.

In his first season back at Alabama, Groh had seven wide receivers average 10-plus yards per reception, led by Marquis Maze. Maze, who recorded 56 catches on the season for 627 yards, earned second-team All-Southeastern Conference recognition by the league coaches.

Groh's only year at Louisville saw him develop two players at the quarterback position with the duo combining for 2,423 yards and 21 touchdowns. The Cardinal improved to 7-6 with the help of Groh in 2010 after posting a 4-8 record in 2009 prior to his arrival.

Groh spent the 2009 season at Alabama as an offensive graduate assistant as the Tide recorded a 14-0 record en route to the National Championship. Last year as the quarterbacks coach at Louisville, Groh was instrumental in the development of seniors Adam Froman and Justin Burke. Due to injuries, both players shared the starting role and showed great improvement from the previous season. After throwing just nine touchdown passes in 2009, the quarterbacks combined to throw 22 in 2010 with just eight interceptions.

Before his stints at Alabama and Louisville, Groh spent eight seasons as an assistant coach at Virginia including the final three years as the offensive coordinator for the Cavaliers. Considered one of the greatest quarterbacks in Virginia history, Groh was hired on the Virginia staff in 2001 as the wide receivers coach before he took on the task of coaching the Cavalier quarterbacks in 2003 along with the receivers. He added the title of recruiting coordinator in 2005.

In his first year working with the quarterbacks at Virginia, Groh coached Matt Schaub, who set a school record with a 69.7 percent completion percentage, throwing for 2,952 yards and 18 touchdowns. Schaub is currently the starter for the Houston Texans and was named to the Pro Bowl in 2009 after leading the league in passing yards. Marques Hagans transitioned from wide receiver to quarterback for the 2004 and 2005 seasons and which culminated with a 358-yard passing performance in the 2005 Music City Bowl to earn game MVP honors. Hagans finished his career with 4,877 passing yards, the fifth-highest total by a Cavalier.

As the wide receivers coach in 2001 and 2002 seasons, Groh helped Billy McMullen become one of the top receivers in the nation. As a senior in 2002, McMullen became the second all-time leading receiver in ACC history with 210 career receptions. Groh also recruited tailback Wali Lundy, who became the all-time touchdown leader in ACC history.

As the starting quarterback at Virginia in 1994-95, Groh became the only quarterback in school history to lead the Cavaliers to nine wins and a bowl victory in consecutive seasons. Groh led the ACC and ranked 13th in the nation in passing in 1994 as the Cavaliers finished 9-3 and defeated TCU 20-10 in the Independence Bowl as he earned MVP honors in that game.

As a tri-captain in 1995, he helped lead Virginia to a 9-4 record, including a 34-27 victory over Georgia in the Peach Bowl, and a share of the ACC championship. He earned second-team All-ACC honors in 1995 and received Virginia's Joe Palumbo Award for self-sacrifice.

He played his final season at Virginia as a graduate student after receiving his undergraduate degree in rhetoric and communication studies from Virginia in 1995. He attended the Baltimore Ravens' training camp as a free agent in 1996 and later played in the World League for the Rhein Fire in 1997. Groh spent the 2000 season as an offensive assistant/quality control coach for the New York Jets.

Groh is married to the former Elena Montero.

DOUG NUSSMEIER

OFFENSIVE COORDINATOR
QUARTERBACKS

After three seasons at the University of Washington, Doug Nussmeier was hired in February as Alabama's new offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach. Nussmeier held the same titles at Washington and takes over for Jim McElwain, who was recently named the head coach at Colorado State. Despite replacing a first round pick at quarterback, Nussmeier's offense at UW had a very successful campaign in 2011 and the unit improved statistically in each of his three seasons.

Last year, Washington's offense scored 57 touchdowns and 431 points, the second-highest totals in school history (behind only the 1991 National Championship team). The 2011 season marks for passing yards (3,322) and total offense (5,328) were also second in UW record books. Nussmeier helped guide sophomore quarterback Keith Price to one of the top individual seasons at Washington as the first-year starter broke records for passing touchdowns (33), completion percentage (.669) and passing efficiency (161.9). That efficiency rating was seventh nationally and second in the Pac 12 behind only Andrew Luck of Stanford. The Huskies scored 30 or more points in nine of 13 games and also featured an outstanding ground game led by Chris Polk, who ranked 16th nationally with an average of 114.5 rushing yards per game.

In 2010, Nussmeier oversaw a balanced attack that finished the season with 2,238 rushing yards and 2,475 passing yards. The offense was led by Polk at tailback, whose 1,415 rushing yards were second-most in UW single-season history. Additionally, Nussmeier mentored quarterback Jake Locker, who finished his career ranked No. 1 or No. 2 in nearly every major quarterbacking category. Locker was the No. 8 overall pick in last year's NFL Draft, selected by Tennessee Titans.

In his first season at Washington, Nussmeier's offense made tremendous strides over the previous year. The Huskies scored 26.1 points per game, nearly doubling their average from the previous year while total offense was up more than 110 yards per game over the 2008 average. Nussmeier also spent his first season coaching Locker, who had one of the most productive seasons in Husky history. Locker passed for 2,800 yards, the third-highest total in school history, while his offense also boasted a 1,000-yard rusher in Polk. Nussmeier came to the UW after one season as the offensive coordinator at Fresno State.

He joined the Fresno State staff after spending two seasons as the quarterbacks coach for the St. Louis Rams on the staff of head coach Scott Linehan. He coached Marc Bulger, who was named to his second Pro Bowl in 2006, finishing with 4,301 passing yards, 24 touchdowns and only eight interceptions.

Before his time with the Rams, Nussmeier was the QB coach at Michigan State for three seasons. In 2005, MSU quarterback Drew Stanton passed for a school-record 3,415 yards, breaking a record set by another Nussmeier pupil, Jeff Smoker, who threw for 3,395 yards in 2003. Smoker also set MSU records for completions (302), attempts (488) and passing touchdowns (21).

Nussmeier, who played in both the NFL and the Canadian Football League, began his coaching career in the CFL. In 2001, he was the quarterbacks coach for the British Columbia Lions and then, in 2002, served as the offensive coordinator and QBs coach for the Ottawa Renegades.

During his outstanding collegiate career at Idaho, Nussmeier passed for 10,824 yards and averaged 309.1 yards per game in total offense for his career. Along with Steve McNair, Daunte Culpepper and Colin Kaepernick, he is one of only four QBs in NCAA history to total 10,000 yards passing and 1,000 yards rushing during his career. He set Idaho school records for TD passes (91), passing efficiency (154.4), completion percentage (.609) and total offense (12,054 yards). In 1993, he won the Walter Payton Award, Division I-AA's version of the Heisman Trophy. That year, he led Idaho to an 11-3 record and set a school record with 33 TD passes. He was also the Big Sky Offensive Player of the Year in 1992, when the Vandals went 9-3 and won the conference crown. Nussmeier was inducted into the University of Idaho Athletic Hall of Fame in 2008.

In 1994, Nussmeier was drafted in the fourth round by the New Orleans Saints. He played four years (1994-97) with the Saints and one with the Indianapolis Colts (1998). In 2000, he helped the BC Lions to the Grey Cup Championship.

The Oswego, Ore., native attended Lakeridge High School and earned his bachelor's degree in business and marketing from Idaho in 1994. He and his wife, Christi, have two sons, Garrett and Colton, and a daughter, Ashlynn.

SECONDARY

JEREMY PRUITT

Jeremy Pruitt begins his third season on Alabama's coaching staff after being hired in January of 2010. Pruitt, a former defensive back with the Crimson Tide, coaches the secondary.

The 2011 Alabama secondary was one of the best in the nation, boasting a pair of AFCA first-team All-Americans in Mark Barron, who was also a finalist for the Thorpe Award, and DeQuan Menzie. Dre Kirkpatrick made it three first-team All-Americans in the secondary when he and Barron received that honor from the FWAA. Dee Milliner also made significant contributions at corner and led the team with three interceptions on the season. Robert Lester, who started alongside Barron at safety, collected 39 total tackles, a pair of interceptions, five passes defended, one forced fumble and a blocked kick this season after leading the team in picks a year ago.

The defensive backfield had a lot of new faces on the field in 2010 with the loss of starters Javier Arenas (CB), Kareem Jackson (CB) and Justin Woodall (S) following the 2009 National Championship. Under the tutelage of Pruitt, the young group came together quickly and helped Alabama lead the SEC in total defense, scoring defense and pass efficiency defense.

The 2010 secondary was anchored by Barron, who was named a first-team FWAA All-American. He led the Tide with 75 tackles in 12 games in 2010, missing the Capital One Bowl with a shoulder injury. Lester also had a significant impact at safety earning second-team Walter Camp All-American honors and ranking second nationally with eight interceptions last year. At corner, Kirkpatrick was a second-team All-SEC pick, while Milliner was a Freshman All-American and Freshman All-SEC selection.

Pruitt joined the Alabama staff as Director of Player Development in 2007 after a successful stint as an assistant coach at Hoover (Ala.) High School. At Hoover, he served for three seasons as defensive backs coach with the final two as the defensive coordinator. He tutored a defense that helped the Bucs reach the Class 6A State Championship in 2004, 2005 and 2006, winning titles in 2004 and 2005. Pruitt served as an assistant coach under his father, Dale Pruitt, at Fort Payne High School from 2001-03.

Pruitt began his coaching career as a student assistant coach at Alabama during the 1997 season, where he worked under defensive backs coach Curley Hallman. After one year on the UA staff, Pruitt joined his father's staff at Plainview High School as defensive backs coach and defensive coordinator in 1998 and 2000. He spent one season as defensive backs coach at the University of West Alabama, where he earned his bachelor's degree in 1999.

During his collegiate career, Pruitt played at both Middle Tennessee and Alabama. He began his career at Middle Tennessee under legendary coach Boots Donnelly, where he was a two-year starter at safety and cornerback for the Blue Raiders.

After his sophomore season, Pruitt transferred to Alabama where he played two seasons under Gene Stallings. As a junior, Pruitt played in nine games and recorded seven tackles. As a senior, Pruitt played in seven games as a backup defensive back and was a member of Alabama's 1996 SEC Western Division Championship team that beat Michigan 17-13 in the Outback Bowl in Tampa.

A two-time All-State defensive back, Pruitt helped Plainview High School to a 48-8 record during his four-year career. He earned All-State honors in both 1991 and 1992.

CHRIS RUMPH

DEFENSIVE LINE

Chris Rumph begins his second season on the defensive coaching staff for the Alabama Crimson Tide. Rumph, a four-year letterman during his playing days at South Carolina, joined Alabama's staff after five years as the defensive ends coach at Clemson.

Rumph's defensive line was stellar in 2011 helping the Crimson Tide rank No. 1 nationally in rushing defense, allowing just 72.2 yards per game.

Josh Chapman anchored the line from his nose guard position, earning second-team All-SEC honors on the year after playing the second half of the season with a torn ACL. In 2011, Chapman collected 23 total tackles, including 3.5 for loss, one sack and a pair of pass breakups. Alabama led the nation in all five major defensive categories as the Tide captured the National Championship. He was then drafted in the fifth round of the 2012 NFL Draft by the Indianapolis Colts.

In Rumph's tenure at Clemson, the Tigers ranked among the top 25 nationally in scoring defense and total defense in each of those five seasons. The 2010 defense was 19th in total defense (320.3 ypg) and 13th in scoring defense (18.8 ppg). Clemson appeared in bowl games to conclude each of those five seasons and won the ACC Atlantic Division Title in 2009. Rumph coached 2010 All-American Da'Quan Bowers, who led the nation in sacks (15.5) and was tied for first in the NCAA in tackles for loss (26.0). He also coached defensive end Phillip Merling, who was the No. 32 overall pick by the Miami Dolphins in the 2008 NFL Draft.

Prior to his stint at Clemson, Rumph was the outside linebackers coach at Memphis for three years (2003-05). Memphis appeared in bowl games in each of his three seasons and won a total of 24 games during that time. Memphis beat SEC rival Mississippi in 2003 and 2004 and the Tigers were ninth in the nation in total defense in 2003. In 2005, the Memphis defense finished 23rd in the nation in turnover margin and led the conference in rush defense (125.6 ypg), which was good for 27th in the NCAA.

Rumph was the defensive backs coach at South Carolina State in 2002 following a five-year stint as head coach at Calhoun County (SC) High School. He also served as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks/runnin backs coach there.

Rumph was born December 21, 1971, in Orangeburg, South Carolina and played high school football at Calhoun County High School in St. Matthews, S.C. Rumph signed with South Carolina and played linebacker from 1991-94, earning his B.S. degree in 1994. He helped the Gamecocks record their first bowl victory in the 1995 Carquest Bowl. He and his wife, Kila, are the proud parents of two sons, Christopher and Elijah.

DEFENSIVE COORDINATOR
LINEBACKERS

KIRBY SMART

Kirby Smart, the 2009 Broyles Award winner, begins his sixth season with the Alabama football staff and fifth as defensive coordinator. A former standout defensive back and scholar-athlete at Georgia, Smart brings an impressive blend of college and pro coaching experience to the Crimson Tide.

Under Smart's tutelage, the 2011 defense led the nation in all five major categories including total defense (183.6 ypg), scoring defense (8.2 ppg), rushing defense (72.2 ypg), passing defense (111.5 ypg) and pass efficiency defense (83.69 rating). Linebacker Dont'a Hightower, a finalist for the Lombardi Award, the Lott Trophy, the Butkus Award and the Bednarik Award, led the team in total tackles with 85. The first-team All-SEC selection has also recorded 11 tackles for loss, four sacks, eight quarterback hurries, one interception and a blocked kick. Hightower also became the latest in a line of first-round linebackers produced at Alabama, going to the New England Patriots with the 25th pick of the first round in 2012.

Smart's rebuilding job in 2010 was impressive as the Tide remained one of the nation's elite defensive units while replacing nearly the entire defense (nine starters). Alabama led the SEC and ranked third nationally in scoring defense (13.5 ppg) and fifth nationally in total defense (286.4 ypg). UA also ranked first in the SEC (sixth in the NCAA) in pass efficiency defense. Safety Mark Barron and defensive lineman Marcell Dareus earned first-team All-SEC honors while Hightower, safety Robert Lester and cornerback Dre Kirkpatrick were second-team All-SEC selections.

The 2009 season was a special one for Smart as he not only helped lead UA to the National Championship, but also took home the Broyles Award as the top assistant coach in the country. The Alabama defense was again regarded as one of the top units in the country in 2009, leading the SEC and ranking second nationally in scoring defense (11.7 ppg), pass efficiency defense (87.7), rush defense (78.1 ypg) and total defense (244.1 ypg).

In the BCS National Championship Game against Texas, the Tide recorded four interceptions and scored a defensive touchdown. Three players on Smart's defense earned first-team All-America honors – Rolando McClain, Javier Arenas, Terrence Cody – while Barron was a third-team Associated Press All-American. McClain captured the Butkus Award and Cody was a finalist for several national awards as well.

The Alabama defense was rated among the nation's best in 2008. The Tide finished third in total defense (263.5 ypg) and seventh in scoring defense (14.3 ppg) in the final NCAA stats. Senior captain Rashad Johnson earned first-team All-America honors as well as first-team All-SEC recognition after intercepting five passes, including that were returned for touchdowns. Alabama recorded 15 interceptions in 2008 and brought back four of those for scores.

Under Smart's guidance in 2007, Johnson led the SEC with six interceptions and earned first-team All-SEC honors along with cornerback Simeon Castille. A third member of the Alabama secondary, Kareem Jackson, was honored at the end of the season as a second-team Sporting News Freshman All-American.

Smart joined the Tide after spending the 2006 season as safeties coach with head coach Nick Saban and the NFL's Miami Dolphins. Prior to his stint with the Dolphins, Smart spent six years on the collegiate level with Georgia (1999 and 2005), LSU (2004), Florida State (2002-03), and Valdosta State (2000-01).

As the running backs coach at Georgia in 2005, the Bulldogs averaged 162.2 yards per game, the third-best mark in the SEC. Smart spent the 2004 season as defensive backs coach under Saban at LSU, where he tutored two NFL draft picks: Corey Webster (2nd round, New York Giants) and Travis Daniels (4th round, Miami Dolphins). That season, the Tigers allowed 157.2 passing yards per game, which ranked second in the SEC and fifth nationally.

Smart was a graduate assistant coach under Bobby Bowden and Mickey Andrews at Florida State in 2002-03, having served as defensive coordinator/linebackers coach (2001) and defensive backs (2000) coach at Valdosta State the two previous seasons. He began his coaching career as an administrative assistant at Georgia in 1999.

As a player, Smart was a four-year letterman at defensive back for the Bulldogs, where he was a first-team All-SEC pick as a senior. He finished his career with 13 interceptions, fourth in Georgia annals, and led the Bulldogs with six interceptions in 1997 and five in 1998. A four-time member of the SEC Academic Honor Roll, Smart earned his undergraduate degree in finance from Georgia and his master's degree from Florida State in 2003.

A native of Bainbridge, Ga., Smart is married to the former Mary Beth Lycett of McDonough, Ga. The couple are the proud parents of four-year-old twins, Weston and Julia, and son, Andrew.

COACHING STAFF

One of the nation's most respected offensive line coaches, Jeff Stoutland is entering his second season at Alabama after serving as the offensive line coach at Miami from 2007-10. Stoutland, who was the interim head coach for the Hurricanes in the 2010 Sun Bowl, has spent the last 14 years as an assistant coach at Miami, Michigan State and Syracuse.

In 2011, Stoutland's offensive line helped pave the way for Heisman Trophy finalist Trent Richardson, while allowing the second fewest sacks in the Southeastern Conference, giving up just 17 all season. The veteran duo of Barrett Jones and William Vlachos, who were both named first-team All-SEC, combined for 76 starts in their Crimson Tide careers. Jones was awarded the Outland Trophy, becoming the third to receive the award in program history, while Vlachos was one of six finalists for the Rimington Award, presented to the nation's best center. Jones was a first-team Walter Camp All-American while Vlachos earned second-team recognition. Also honored for his performance on the offensive line this season was Chance Warmack, who was named a second-team All-SEC selection by league coaches.

As a member of the Hurricanes coaching staff, Stoutland helped Miami to lead the ACC in total offense (421.3 ypg) and finish third in rushing (182.5 ypg). Brandon Washington was a first-team All-ACC selection at guard and tackle Orlando Franklin was a second-team honoree. In 2009, tackle Jason Fox earned first-team all-conference honors and was selected by the Detroit Lions in the fourth round of the 2010 NFL Draft.

Before heading to Miami, Stoutland spent the previous seven seasons (2000-06) at Michigan State. He produced six All-Big Ten selections during his tenure and in addition, seven Spartans earned Academic All-Big Ten honors. In 2005, the Michigan State line paved the way for the nation's No. 5 offense, No.

11 pass offense and No. 20 rush offense. The 2004 MSU offense ranked second in the Big Ten and No. 10 in the NCAA in rushing, with eight 200-yard rushing games. That line also led the Big Ten in fewest sacks allowed (eight). The Michigan State line helped running back T.J. Duckett produce back-to-back 1,000-yard rushing seasons in 2000 and 2011.

Stoutland was an assistant at Syracuse (1997-99) for three years under Paul Pasqualoni, where he coached the tight ends for two years before taking over the offensive line in 1999. In addition to his coaching duties, he also served as the recruiting coordinator for all three seasons and Syracuse played in bowl games in each of those years. In 1999, he coached first-team All-Big East offensive tackle Mark Baniewicz, who also earned the National Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete Award and GTE Academic All-America honors. During his stint as tight ends coach, Stoutland helped produce two NFL players, including Roland Williams (Oakland Raiders) and Kaseem Sinceno (Philadelphia Eagles and Chicago Bears).

Prior to that, Stoutland spent five years as offensive line coach at Cornell (1992-96). He guided center Greg Bloodorn to first-team All-Ivy League honors in 1995 and a three-year stint with the NFL's Seattle Seahawks (1997-99).

His full-time coaching credits include two stints at his alma mater, Southern Connecticut State, where he served as offensive coordinator for five years (1988-92) and coached inside linebackers for two seasons (1984-85). The New York City native also served as a graduate assistant for Dick MacPherson for two years at Syracuse (1986-87), working primarily with the offensive line.

Stoutland was a four-year letterman and three-year starter at inside linebacker at Southern Connecticut State (1980-83), where he was a team captain as a senior. He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education in 1984 and added a master's degree in exercise physiology from the school in 1986. He and his wife, Allison, who is a published children's author, have two children, Jake and Madison.

ASSISTANT HEAD COACH LINEBACKERS

The newest member of Alabama's defensive staff is a familiar name as head coach Nick Saban announced in February that Lance Thompson would return to coach the outside linebackers for the Crimson Tide as he did in 2007 and 2008. Thompson returns to the UA staff after spending the last three seasons at Tennessee.

Alabama's defense must replace several veterans this season, including both starting outside linebackers in Courtney Upshaw and Jerrell Harris along with key reserve Alex Watkins. Upshaw led the team with 9.5 sacks and earned first-team All-America honors. Among those expected to compete for playing time this spring are Xzavier Dickson and Adrian Hubbard, who both saw some game action in 2011.

Thompson spent the last three years at Tennessee (2009-11) working with the linebackers the first two seasons and the defensive line in 2011. As linebackers coach, he guided Nick Reveiz to a team-high 108 tackles in 2010. Reveiz was also a finalist for the Burlsworth Trophy, presented to a former walk-on having the biggest impact on his team.

Alabama put together an impressive 12-2 record in Thompson's second season in Tuscaloosa, winning the SEC West title and a BCS bowl bid. The Tide ranked third nationally in total defense (263.5 ypg) and seventh nationally in scoring defense (14.3 ppg) in 2008. Thompson was named the Rivals.com National Recruiter of the Year for his work in helping UA land what was widely regarded as the nation's top signing class in 2008.

Previously, he was a member National Championship staffs at Georgia Tech and LSU. Thompson has been a member of two SEC championship coaching staffs, two ACC championship staffs and one Conference USA divisional winner.

Thompson served as the defensive coordinator at UCF for three seasons (2004-06). In 2005, his unit produced a pair of All-Conference USA first team selections in defensive end Paul Carrington and cornerback Joe Burnett. The Golden Knights were also the 2005 Conference USA Eastern Division champions. Thompson helped develop one of the nation's youngest defenses at UCF in 2004 and the group came together to hold the opposition to 21 points or less in three of the final four games of the season.

LANCE THOMPSON

In his first stint with Saban, Thompson spent two seasons at LSU as the assistant head coach in charge of recruiting and the tight ends coach for the Tigers during their national championship season in 2003. Thompson began his tenure at LSU in 2002 as the defensive line coach. In his first year with the Tigers, Thompson coached defensive tackle Chad Lavalais to first team All-SEC honors as the Tigers' front four racked up 22 sacks.

Thompson also coached for four seasons on head coach George O'Leary's staff at Georgia Tech. In 2001, he coached a defensive line that recorded 21 sacks, including 10 by All-American defensive end Greg Gathers.

He served as Alabama's defensive line coach in 1999-2000 as the Crimson Tide won the 1999 SEC Championship and earned a BCS bowl berth (2000 Orange Bowl). Among those coached at UA during that two-year period was All-SEC defensive lineman Jarret Johnson, who is regarded as one of the most consistent performers in the NFL as a starter with the Baltimore Ravens.

Prior to his first two-year stint at Alabama, Thompson was a part of the Georgia Tech staff for 11 years. During his stay with the Yellow Jackets, Thompson was defensive line coach in 1998; defensive ends coach in 1996 and 1997 and tight ends coach in 1995. Thompson served as the Georgia Tech's recruiting coordinator from 1995-98 and then again in 2001. Prior to serving as an on-field coach for the Yellow Jackets, Thompson held the position of Director of Football Operations at Georgia Tech from 1992-94.

Thompson got his start in coaching in 1988, serving as a graduate assistant for two years at Georgia Tech, followed by two more years as a volunteer assistant in 1990 and 1991. Thompson coached the defensive ends, including former All-American and All-Pro Marco Coleman. Georgia Tech won the national championship in 1990.

As a player, Thompson was a four-year letterman at The Citadel, where he earned his bachelor's degree in education and mathematics in 1987. A native of Riverdale, Ga., Thompson has three daughters - Allie, Christina and Lane.

BOBBY WILLIAMSTIGHT ENDS
SPECIAL TEAMS

Bobby Williams begins his fifth season in Tuscaloosa after being hired as Alabama's tight ends coach and special teams coordinator in January of 2008. A veteran coach with both college and NFL experience, Williams is a member of Nick Saban's coaching staff for the fourth time in his career as they have worked together previously at Michigan State, LSU and the Miami Dolphins.

In 2011, Williams' tight end duo of Brad Smelley and Michael Williams combined for 50 receptions resulting in 597 yards for the Crimson Tide. Smelley has recorded a team-best four receiving touchdowns, while Williams has tacked on another two scores this season. On special teams, Marquis Maze ranked ninth in the nation and third in the Southeastern Conference, averaging 13.2 yards per punt return with one touchdown. Those numbers earned Maze a spot on the All-SEC second team as a specialist. As a team, Alabama ranked 19th in the nation in kickoff returns with 24.1 yards per game. In addition, the Tide has allowed just 11 punts to be returned this season for a total of 51 yards.

Williams was instrumental in the development of Preston Dial in 2010 as the senior had a breakout season under his tutelage. On top of his exceptional blocking abilities, Dial hauled in a career-best 25 passes for 264 yards and three scores. Michael Williams also had an outstanding season as a dominating blocker on the edge in the UA running game while catching eight passes for 100 yards and a touchdown. Williams returns for 2011, but Dial's departure opens up an opportunity for some of the younger players at the position this spring.

The veteran coach had to replace both kickers in 2010 with the losses of Leigh Tiffin and P.J. Fitzgerald. Two freshmen earned the kicking duties for the Tide in 2010. Newcomer Cody Mandell won the punting duties as a true freshman and averaged 39.2 yards per kick, knocking 13 inside the 20. Fellow freshman Cade Foster split field goal duties with sophomore Jeremy Shelley. Foster drilled seven field goals, including five over 40 yards while Shelley handled the closer attempts. Trent Richardson ranked 29th nationally in kickoff returns and Marquis Maze was 16th in punt returns.

During the National Championship season in 2009, Williams had to replace a pair of senior tight ends from the 2008 roster. The Alabama offense did not miss a beat as Colin Peck emerged as one of the team's top targets, earning second-team Associated Press All-SEC honors with 26 catches for 313 yards and three touchdowns.

Williams also oversaw 2009 Lou Groza finalist Leigh Tiffin at place-kicker, who earned first-team AP All-America status, as well as Javier Arenas, who set the SEC career record punt return yards and touchdowns. Punter P.J. Fitzgerald had a career season for the Tide by averaging 41.5 yards per kick with 19 inside the 20-yard line.

The special teams in 2008 were a big weapon for the Tide under Williams. Arenas broke two punt returns for touchdowns, Tiffin was a Groza Award semifinalist and connected on 20-of-29 on field goals while P.J. Fitzgerald had a then-career-best average of 41.1 yards per punt with 15 inside the 20. In addition, tight ends Nick Walker and Travis McCall combined for 23 starts had the best seasons of their career in terms of production.

Williams spent the 2005 and 2006 seasons as the running backs coach with the Dolphins. In his first season, Miami averaged 118.6 yards rushing per contest, the second-best figure by the team over the previous 21 years (1985-05).

In 2004, Williams served as the associate head coach/wide receivers coach at LSU where he coached a pair of future NFL first round picks in Craig Davis and Dwayne Bowe. Both Davis and Bowe ranked in the top ten in the SEC in both receptions per game and receiving yards per game that season. Prior to LSU, he had a one-year stint with the Detroit Lions as wide receivers coach in 2003.

Williams followed Saban as the head coach at Michigan State, and served in that post from 2000-02. He led the Spartans to a victory over Florida in the 2000 Citrus Bowl after the 1999 season, in his first game as the school's head coach. He also guided Michigan State to a 7-5 mark in 2001, his second full season as the team's head coach, one which culminated with a victory over Fresno State in the Silicon Valley Football Classic, as he became the first coach in Michigan State history to lead his team to victories in his first two bowl appearances.

He previously was an assistant on the Spartans staff from 1990-99, during which time he tutored the running backs under Saban. Spartan backs produced nine individual 1,000-yard rushing seasons in Williams' ten years in that post, a list which includes T.J. Duckett, Atlanta's first-round draft choice in 2002.

Williams got his start in the coaching profession as running backs/defensive backs coach at Ball State from 1983-84. He followed that with a five-year stop (1985-89) as offensive backfield coach at Eastern Michigan.

Williams is a 1982 graduate of Purdue where he earned his degree in general management and was a four-year letterman for the Boilermakers. He started his career at running back before moving to the secondary and starting in his final three seasons. A tri-captain as a senior in 1981, Williams was a part of three bowl teams as a player. He then served one year (1982) as a graduate assistant at his alma mater.

A native of St. Louis, Mo., Williams and his wife, Sheila, have a daughter, Nataly, and a son, Nicholas, a wide receiver for the Crimson Tide.

COACHING STAFF

DIRECTOR OF STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

SCOTT COCHRAN

The booming voice you hear leading a pre-practice stretch or encouraging a Crimson Tide player to finish a workout session strong is that of Director of Strength and Conditioning Scott Cochran. The high-energy coach, who is a two-time national strength coach of the year, joined the Alabama staff in 2007 after spending three seasons with the New Orleans Hornets of the NBA as an assistant strength coach. Cochran has been on Nick Saban's staff for all three national titles, as he served as an assistant at LSU in 2003.

Cochran is nationally regarded as one of the best in the area of strength and conditioning and the performances of Alabama's players on the field prove that to be true. He received one of the highest honors in his field when he was named the 2011 Samson Strength & Conditioning Coach of the Year as featured in American Football Quarterly. He was also named the Samson Strength & Conditioning Coach of the Year following the 2008 season.

Prior to the start of spring drills, Cochran implements head coach Nick Saban's offseason workout plan, which includes the well-known "Fourth Quarter Program" – a very important step in helping UA players develop physically and prepare for the upcoming practices.

It is no coincidence that through improvements off the field in strength and conditioning, Alabama is known as one of the most physically dominant teams in the country. The main goal of the program is to win the fourth quarter and wear down the opponent as the game goes on. On the way to the 2009 National Championship, Alabama did just that as they won the fourth quarter by an astounding margin of 121-32. The Tide has continued the trend of finishing as it has once again dominated the fourth quarter this year en route to UA's second National Championship in three years with a 111-18 in 2011.

While in the NBA with the Hornets, Cochran's duties included assisting with the exercise and strength conditioning programs to help players achieve and maintain optimal fitness throughout the NBA season. With the Hornets, he coached NBA standouts Chris Paul, Baron Davis, David West and Tyson Chandler.

Prior to joining the Hornets staff, Cochran worked for his alma mater, Louisiana State, as an assistant strength coach in 2003 (13-1, BCS National Champions) and 2004 (9-3, Capital One Bowl). He was a graduate assistant in Baton Rouge from 2001-03. Cochran returned to LSU after starting his career in the strength and conditioning field at University Laboratory High School in Baton Rouge, La. He held that position from 1998-2001 before returning to LSU as a graduate assistant for all sports from 2001-03. Cochran was then hired on to the full-time staff for the 2003-04 season.

A native of New Orleans, Cochran received a bachelor's degree in kinesiology from LSU in 2001 and added a master's degree in sports management from LSU in 2003. Cochran was born on March 21, 1979, and is married to the former Cissy Schepens. They have a son, Beau, and two daughters, Savannah and Lucy.

PAUL GONNELLADIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

University of Alabama head coach Nick Saban added Paul Gonnella as Alabama's Director of Player Personnel in the spring of 2012.

Gonnella spent the 2011 season in the same role at Purdue and took over for Ed Marynowitz, who accepted a position with the Philadelphia Eagles.

At Alabama, Gonnella's main charge is to direct the recruiting efforts for the Crimson Tide. He also assists with camps, clinics and other football-related events.

Gonnella's responsibilities also include assisting with the administration and operation of the football program.

Prior to serving as the Director of Player Personnel at Purdue, Gonnella held that title in 2010 at the University of Memphis. He has also spent time at Miami, Tennessee and North Carolina in similar roles and capacities.

During his time with the Boilermakers, Gonnella helped secure 27 signatures in a 2012 signing class that ranked 32nd nationally by Rivals.com.

As the Director of Player Personnel at Memphis in the fall of 2010 and the spring of 2011, the Tigers signed a class that included 17 three-star players. The class was ranked over 40 spots higher than the class before he arrived at Memphis.

Gonnella split the 2009-10 season between the University of Tennessee and the University of Miami. He arrived in Knoxville in January of 2010 and helped the Volunteers move up 22 spots in the recruiting rankings and finish with the No. 10 class nationally. The Tar Heels land the No. 9 recruiting class in the nation in 2009.

Gonnella served as the head coach at Cambridge Rindge Latin from 2005-07. He guided the team to an 18-15 record in three seasons, including a 14-8 mark over his final two campaigns.

A native of Wakefield, Mass., Gonnella began his career as a coach and has worked with high schools in both Massachusetts and Georgia. He was an assistant coach at Lovejoy High School in Hampton, Ga., where he helped tutor the likes of the Buffalo Bills Tashard Choice and the Pittsburgh Steelers Chris Scott. Gonnella also served as an assistant at Somerville (Mass.) High School. He worked as a defensive graduate assistant and in quality control at Mississippi State.

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL
OPERATIONS

JOE PANNUNZIO

Joe Pannunzio is in his second year at Alabama, joining the Crimson Tide coaching staff as director of football operations in February, 2011.

Pannunzio has nearly three decades of college football experience. He spent the previous five years at the University of Miami (Fla.) and was the head coach at Murray State the six seasons before that. His primary role at UA will be to oversee the administration and operation of the football program.

Pannunzio served as the tight ends/special teams coordinator at Miami from 2006-10. The Hurricanes made four bowl appearances in his five years in Coral Gables, including trips to the 2006 MPC Computers Bowl, the 2008 Emerald Bowl, the 2009 Champs Sports Bowl and the 2010 Sun Bowl.

During his tenure in Coral Gables, Pannunzio coached the likes of Greg Olsen, a first-round NFL Draft pick of the Chicago Bears. He also tutored Jimmy Graham, a third-round pick of the New Orleans Saints, and Dedrick Epps, who was selected in the seventh round by the San Diego Chargers.

While the head coach at Murray State from 2000-05, Pannunzio led the Racers to the 2002 Ohio Valley Championship, joining Mike Gottfried, Frank Beamer and Houston Nutt as one of the four coaches to win a conference title at the school. Pannunzio also led Murray State to the 2002 NCAA Championship Subdivision playoffs.

Prior to becoming a head coach for the Racers, Pannunzio spent five years working for Tommy Tuberville at Mississippi and Auburn. Before that, he spent four years under Jim Wacker at TCU and Minnesota. He also coached for seven years at Mesa (Colo.) College, where the team appeared in the NAIA National Championship Game twice and led the nation in total offense and scoring one time. His two stints at Mesa wrapped around two years at Kansas, where he worked under Mike Gottfried.

The Pueblo, Colo., native was a standout quarterback at Southern Colorado, where he graduated with a degree in physical education in 1982. He was named honorable mention all-conference in 1980 and led his team to a No. 9 ranking in NAIA Division I.

He and his wife, Rita, have two daughters, Angela and Nico, and one son, Mario.

JEFF ALLEN

ASSISTANT AD FOR SPORTS MEDICINE

Director of Sports Medicine Jeff Allen is in his sixth season at The University of Alabama and assumed to title of Assistant Athletics Director for Sports Medicine in June, 2012. Before joining the Crimson Tide, Allen was the head athletic trainer at The University of Central Florida. He was responsible for all of the sports medicine needs for the entire department.

Prior to his post at UCF, Allen was head athletic trainer at Tennessee-Chattanooga from 2000-04 where he oversaw the athletic training operations for 16 varsity sports while handling all of the duties associated with the football program.

Allen was an assistant athletic trainer at the University of Kentucky from 1997-2000 and served as an assistant athletic trainer at Valdosta (Ga.) State from 1995-97 where he was head athletic trainer for the football and baseball teams. He earned his master's degree in Health and Physical Education from Valdosta State University in 1995 while also serving as a graduate assistant for two years.

One of the most well-respected athletic trainers in the country, Allen has had several articles published and is a regular speaker at national and state athletic training conferences. He has had his work published by The Journal of Athletic Training and Athletic Therapy Today. Allen has served as a featured speaker at conferences held by the National Athletic Trainers Association and the Southeast Athletic Trainers Association, as well as state meetings in Georgia, Kentucky and Tennessee.

A 1993 graduate of Georgia Southern University with a bachelor's degree in Health and Physical Education, Allen and his wife, Mary, have one daughter, Makennah.

JEFF SPRINGER

ATHLETIC EQUIPMENT DIRECTOR

The all-important role of Athletic Equipment Director is coordinated by Jeff Springer, who joined the Alabama football staff in March of 2011. Springer joins the Crimson Tide staff after serving for four years (2007-10) as the head athletic equipment manager at Louisiana Tech.

Prior to his time at Louisiana Tech, Springer held the same position at The Citadel in South Carolina from 2006-07.

A native of Slidell, La., Springer spent three years (2003-05) as the first assistant equipment manager at Louisiana State University. He worked primarily with LSU's football program, while also managing women's soccer, women's gymnastics, cheerleading, track and field/cross country, and swimming and diving.

In the summer of 2001, Springer interned with the Miami Dolphins. He spent the next two seasons working as an intern at LSU and Tulane University.

Springer earned a kinesiology degree from LSU in 2001. He is a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association and the American Football Coaches Association.

Springer is married to the former Anna Bannister and the couple has one daughter, Bailey.

WILLIE CARL MARTIN

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Willie Carl Martin joined the Alabama football staff as Director of Player Development (Academics) in March of 2007 after serving as head football coach at Benjamin Russell High School in Alexander City since 2001.

Martin's role at Alabama is to help in the personal development of each student-athlete and see to it that they reach their full potential from an academic and personal standpoint.

Martin compiled a 52-24 record in six seasons as head coach at Benjamin Russell. Previously an assistant coach for the school, where he coached Dallas Cowboys receiver Terrell Owens, Martin served 24 years in the Alexander City School System as a coach, teacher and administrator. A native of Alexander City, Martin joined the school system there in 1983 as a teacher and coach for Alexander Middle School. In 1985, he moved on to Benjamin Russell High School in a similar capacity and was elevated to head football coach in 2001. He led the Wildcats to the state championship in 2001 and was an assistant during the 1997 and 2000 seasons when they finished as runners-up. For the last four years, Martin has served on the Central Board of Control for the Alabama High School Athletic Association (AHSAA).

A 1975 graduate of Northeastern State University in Tahlequah, Okla., Martin was inducted into the NSU Athletic Hall of Fame in February 2007. He was a four-year letterman (1969-72) in football for NSU as an offensive lineman and earned All-America and first-team All-Oklahoma Collegiate Conference honors as a senior in 1972. After graduation, the Houston Oilers of the National Football League (NFL) drafted Martin. However, he chose to compete in the Canadian Football League (CFL) where his 10-year career featured stops in Edmonton and Winnipeg. Martin was named All-Pro in eight of his 10 seasons in the CFL, participated in six Grey Cup games and won two championships.

Martin and his wife, Leslie Ruth, have two daughters, Carla and Kizzy, and one grandson, Malik.

KEVIN SHERRER

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Kevin Sherrer is in his third season as Director of Player Development at the University of Alabama. In this role, Sherrer focuses on the off-the-field activities of Alabama's football student-athletes and serves as an important resource in balancing the demands of academics, athletics, community outreach, and their personal lives. Sherrer also assists with personal development programs, including the peer intervention group.

Sherrer played tight end at Alabama from 1993-95 and earned a letter in 1995. After graduating from UA in 1996, he spent two seasons at Tuscaloosa County High School as an assistant coach, which included a state title in 1997.

In 1998, Sherrer returned to UA as a graduate assistant on defense for a three-year stint. The Crimson Tide won the Music City Bowl in 1998 and won the SEC Championship in 1999, resulting in a trip to the Orange Bowl. Sherrer earned his master's degree in higher education from the University of Alabama in 2000.

From Alabama, Sherrer spent four years at Spain Park High School (2001-2004) as an assistant coach on defense. He then served for five seasons at Hoover High School – two as a defensive assistant (2005-06) and three as defensive coordinator (2007-09). Hoover won a pair of state championships during Sherrer's stay (2005 and 2009).

Sherrer and his wife, Carrie, are the parents of twin nine-year old boys, Kaleb and Kyle.

TOP RANKED

ONE OF AMERICA'S TOP PUBLIC UNIVERSITIES

- Ranked among the top 50 public universities in the nation in U.S. News and World Report's annual college rankings for more than a decade, UA ranked 31st among public universities, its highest ranking ever, in the 2012 rankings. UA's latest college rankings include:

- The School of Law is ranked 29th among all law schools in the nation, spring 2012.

- The Manderson Graduate School of Business is listed 4th among the "top 10 most popular business schools," based on the percent of accepted applicants who chose to attend the school.

- The School of Social Work is ranked 52nd nationally, spring 2012.

- The University of Alabama's fall 2011 freshman class ranked second in the nation among public universities in the enrollment of National Merit Scholars, with 181 scholars enrolled, up by more than 50 over last year's 128.

- University of Alabama students continue to win prestigious national awards. Three UA students were named Goldwater Scholars and one was named a Truman Scholar this spring, bringing UA's totals for the last 25 years to 37 Goldwater Scholars and eight Truman Scholars. The University of Alabama has produced a total of 15 Rhodes Scholars and numerous Hollings Scholars.

- UA Libraries rank 56th out of 115 U.S. and Canadian university libraries qualifying for membership in the prestigious Association of Research Libraries and 32nd among public university libraries. UA has made dramatic improvement in the rankings, moving up from 102nd overall and 64th among public university libraries in the last 10 years.

- Enrollment at The University of Alabama reached a record high of 31,747 for fall 2011. The entering freshman class, at 5,772 students, is the largest in UA history and includes 1,614 students who had a 4.0 or higher high school grade point average.

- The undergraduate program at the Culverhouse School of Accountancy at The University of Alabama is No. 20 in Public Accounting Report's latest annual professors' survey. The UA graduate program in accounting was ranked 24.

- PRWeek Magazine has recognized the public relations program in The University of Alabama's College of Communication and Information Sciences as one of the top five programs in the nation each of the last four years.

- Participation in original research and creative activities is becoming a hallmark of the undergraduate experience at The University of Alabama. More than 400 undergraduates now showcase their research and creative activity projects at UA's annual "Undergraduate Research and Creative Activity Conference."

- University of Alabama students are committed to community service: In the 2010-2011 academic year alone, more than 20,000 UA students completed more than 780,000 hours of community service with 120 community partners. Additionally, about 6,300 students participated in 150 service-learning courses.

- The University of Alabama has been named to the President's Higher Education Community Service Honor Roll by the Corporation for National and Community Service. The Community Service Honor Roll is the highest federal recognition a school can achieve for its commitment to service learning and civic engagement.

ON CAMPUS

THE SIGHTS OF ONE OF AMERICA'S MOST BEAUTIFUL AND HISTORICAL UNIVERSITIES

Life on The University of Alabama campus is defined by opportunities. If you want to get involved, join one of more than 350 student organizations, help plan concerts and speaker series, participate in intramural teams or run for student government.

If you enjoy the arts, you can take advantage of a rich and varied schedule of musical, dance and theatre performances, art galleries and exhibitions, lectures and readings by writers, poets and experts on every topic imaginable. You can enrich your knowledge of the state and University's history by visiting one of UA's fine museums, which house countless historical artifacts and offer hands-on exploration opportunities.

From the architecture on campus to the landscaping, The University of Alabama campus is one of the most beautiful places in the state of Alabama.

The Ferguson Center was completed in 1973. Plans at the time called for the building to be constructed over Woods Hall, but it was built just to the north thanks to a student campaign to save the art building.

The Ferguson Center Game Room located on the first floor is the perfect place to unwind, test your skill at a video game, play a friendly game of pool or ping-pong, or enter a campus tournament. With seven pool tables, video games, a ping-pong table, computer gaming and televisions, the Game Room offers a fun escape to the daily pressures of college life.

The University of Alabama offers a complete educational, cultural and social experience. Whatever your interests, you'll find a group, an organization, an activity or a program that will appeal to you at UA.

The expanded Student Recreation Center offers first-class recreation facilities to students, faculty and staff. It includes two multi-use gyms, nine multi-purpose courts, weight machines, 1/8-mile jogging track, extensive cardio area, locker rooms, indoor swimming pool, dry and steam saunas, 12 lighted tennis courts, four aerobics rooms, eight racquetball courts and a squash court—together encompassing more than 200,000 square feet. The facility's outdoor aquatic area features a lazy river, lap swim, large water-park-type slide and lots of deck space.

MAL M. MOORE

A T H L E T I C S D I R E C T O R

The University of Alabama's Director of Athletics since 1999, Mal Moore has made an indelible mark on one of the nation's most storied athletic programs, leading a department that has enjoyed tremendous success athletically and academically and has undergone an unprecedented period of growth during his tenure.

Through his guidance, Alabama's athletic department remains focused on his vision of having all Crimson Tide athletic teams and student-athletes competitive at the highest level nationally while continuing to elevate athletic facilities at the Capstone to premier status nationally for all sports.

During his tenure as Director of Athletics, Moore has overseen more than $200 million of capital improvements to University of Alabama athletic facilities. Those projects have encompassed the entire scope of all Crimson Tide athletic programs and have benefitted every Alabama student-athlete, coach, and administrator.

Throughout his career, Moore has worked with a diversified field of constituents, from fellow coaches and former players, to fans and the business community. All of those experiences and relationships - in addition to his ability to unify those many constituents - have made him the ideal person to lead Alabama athletics in the 21st century.

Moore's dedication to and love of the University of Alabama was recognized on March 28, 2007, when, as a permanent tribute to his life-long contribution to The University of Alabama, the Board of Trustees of The University of Alabama officially dedicated the facility formerly known as The Football Building as the Mal M. Moore Athletic Facility.

Under Moore's direction, Alabama's athletic teams have produced national championship teams in football (2009 and 2011), gymnastics (2002, 2011 and 2012), women's golf (2012) and softball (2012) and Southeastern Conference championships in football, basketball, baseball, gymnastics, men's golf, women's golf, men's cross country and softball.

Alabama athletes have earned some of the highest honors the SEC and NCAA have to offer, including SEC Athlete of the Year, SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year, NCAA Top VIII, NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships and NCAA Sportsperson of the Year. These honors are over and above the individual conference and national titles that Alabama athletes continue to bring home to the Capstone on a regular basis.

In addition to making his mark on Alabama Moore has also had a national impact as a key member of several prestigious NCAA and college football committees. Moore has served on the NCAA Division I Football Issues Committee, the SEC Athletic Directors Bowl Advisory Committee and the Big Six Conferences Minority Coaches Forum.

Moore's distinguished record of service to UA began more than 50 years ago when he joined the Crimson Tide football squad as a scholarship player for Coach Paul "Bear" Bryant from 1958-62. Moore has the distinction of being a part of nine national championship football teams as a player, coach and athletic director (1961, 1964, 1965, 1973, 1978, 1979, 1992, 2009, and 2011), 16 SEC championships, and 38 bowl trips. He is the only individual connected with the Tide program to be a part of nine national football championships.

In 2011, he was elected to the State of Alabama Sports Hall of Fame for his accomplishments as a coach and an administrator. The National Football Foundation then named Moore its 2012 John L. Toner Award winner, which goes annually to the athletic director who has "demonstrated superior administrative abilities and shown outstanding dedication to college athletics and particularly college football."

During a coaching career that spanned 31 years, Moore spent 22 of those at Alabama with stops at Montana State, Notre Dame and the NFL's St. Louis and Phoenix Cardinals. At Alabama, Moore started as Coach Bryant's graduate assistant in 1964, then as defensive backfield coach for five years beginning in 1965 before becoming quarterbacks coach from 1971-82 and serving as the Tide's first offensive coordinator starting in 1975. He returned as offensive coordinator under Gene Stallings from 1990-93 before moving into athletic administration.

A 1963 graduate of The University of Alabama, Moore holds both an undergraduate degree in Sociology and a 1964 Master's Degree in Secondary Education from the Capstone. A native of Dozier, Ala., he was married to the former Charlotte Davis of Tuscaloosa for 41 years before she passed away after a long illness in 2010. He has one daughter, Mrs. Steve (Heather) Cook of Scottsdale, Ariz., a granddaughter, Anna Lee, and a grandson, Charles Cannon.

Drawing from our rich heritage and TRADITION OF CHAMPIONS, the University of Alabama Department of Athletics is committed to the highest standard of excellence in all its endeavors to DEVELOP FUTURE LEADERS.

TRADITION CHAMPIONS LEADERS

IN EMBRACING OUR CORE VALUES WE WILL:

Build and maintain an athletic program that annually ranks among the national elite in all sports; emphasize recruitment of the top student-athlete; construct and develop first-class facilities in which our student-athletes and coaches can train and compete at the highest level; promote community involvement of our student-athletes, coaches and staff as necessary for our program's success; and perpetuate our rich heritage and tradition through the spirited branding of our CRIMSON TIDE name.

Housed inside the Mal M. Moore Athletic Facility is the 10,000 square-foot equipment facility. A state-of-the-art operation, the equipment area uses the latest in purifying plasma engineering (RCI) developed by NASA. The system removes the airborne germs and debris that are harmful to athletes and restores clean, breathable air to the room. The same system is installed in the locker rooms, as well as inside each locker, removing any lockerroom odors and allowing shoulder pads and other equipment proper ventilation.

IN THE COMMUNITY

ALABAMA PLAYERS ANSWER THE CALL

BARRETT JONES
ALABAMA OFFENSIVE LINEMAN

The Crimson Tide players have always given back to the city of Tuscaloosa and the surrounding areas through various community service programs. Alabama athletes have made it a priority to take time out of their hectic schedules to read to children, speak at local churches or to just stop by a hospital to brighten the day of patients.

That spirit of community service and pride was never more evident than in the hours, days and weeks following the April 27, 2011, tornado that ripped through Tuscaloosa and surrounding areas. Alabama athletes across all sports stepped up to volunteer in shelters, pass out food and water, remove debris and be there to talk and listen to those who were so profoundly impacted by the storm.

"Our football team is an important part of this community," former Crimson Tide wide receiver Brandon Gibson said. "The tornado caused so much devastation, taking lives and destroying property. Getting out in the community and helping, whether that is cutting down trees, serving food or giving blood, is so important to our football team. I feel like as a team we can really give back to Tuscaloosa. We can really raise the community spirit."

Tide athletes have also been seen outside of Tuscaloosa in inner cities and improvised nations. Barrett Jones, Hardie Buck and Harrison Jones traveled to Haiti in March, their second such trip since a 7.0 magnitude earthquake ravaged that country in January of 2010. They returned to continue what they started; working to rebuild a country while also provided a sense of love and hope to a struggling nation. Barrett and Harrison then spent the 2012 spring break in Nicaragua giving back.

ROLL MODEL

Tide Players seek to maximize their impact

"I think everyone that lives in Tuscaloosa, and in many places around the state, saw unspeakable things in the aftermath of the tornado. There is so much destruction and devastation – so many people lost everything they have I really feel like it is our role as a football team to show that we are part of this community and we care. We want to get out there and make an impact and try to help where we can."

"This community and this state have always supported our football team. We wanted to show them that we are going to support them in their time of need. When something like this happens, we aren't just their football team on Saturday, we are their friends and neighbors who want to help them overcome this tragedy."

THE RISE OF THE TIDE

A BRIEF LOOK AT THE ORIGINS OF COLLEGE FOOTBALL'S
GREATEST TRADITION

"To have a tradition like ours means that you can't lose your cool; to have a tradition like ours means that you always have to show class, even when you are not quite up to it; to have a tradition like ours means that you have to do some things that you don't want to do and some you even think you can't do, simply because tradition demands it of you. On the other hand, tradition is that which allows us to prevail in ways that we could not otherwise."

David Matthews
Former University of Alabama President

Alabama football boasts a rich tradition that dates back for more than a century. The winningest program in SEC annals, Alabama has won 22 SEC Championships and 14 National Championships in its storied history.

It all began with University of Alabama law student William G. Little, who learned how to play American football while attending prep school in Andover, Mass. Little began teaching the sport to fellow Alabama students in early 1892. Later in the year, the school formed an official team of 19 players, with Little as captain and E.B. Beaumont as the team's head coach. Among those on the team was William B. Bankhead, future U.S. Speaker of the House, and Bibb Graves, future governor of Alabama. The team was referred to as the "Cadets", the "Crimson White", or simply as "The Varsity". Following the 1907 season, the team adopted the "Crimson Tide" nickname.

Shortly after the end of the 1922 season, in which he led Alabama in the victory over Penn, head coach Xen C. Scott passed away and Brown University alum Wallace Wade was hired as Alabama's new head coach. Intent on building a dynasty after Wade led the team to its first national championship with a win over Washington in the 1926 Rose Bowl, University President Dr. George Denny took advantage of the team's newfound popularity and began advertising the University of Alabama in metropolitan New York City newspapers. Students, football players and fans alike from the Northeast began enrolling at Alabama at such a rate that by 1930, over one-third of the student body was comprised of students from outside of Alabama. Wade led the Crimson Tide to two more national titles before taking the head coaching job at Duke in 1931.

Frank Thomas, a former quarterback for a Notre Dame squad led by Knute Rockne, was hired to replace Wade. Thomas led the team to continued success and two more national championships before health issues forced him to retire after a 14-year tenure with the team. Among the players that Thomas coached were Harry Gilmer, Don Hutson, and Paul "Bear" Bryant.

Bryant returned to his alma mater as head coach in December, 1957, leaving Texas A&M. In his fourth season at the Capstone (1961), Bryant led the Crimson Tide to their sixth national championship, which included Bryant's first bowl victory with Alabama. From 1961-66, Alabama went 60-5-1 (.917), won four Southeastern Conference Championships, enjoyed two undefeated seasons and won three national championships. During the 1970s, the Crimson Tide was one of the most dominant teams in college football history, winning eight conference titles and three national championships. Alabama posted a 103-16-1 (.863) during the decade.

During his tenure at Alabama, Bryant led Alabama to a 232-46-9 record. His achievements included six national championships, 13 Southeastern Conference titles and 11 bowl victories. In 25 seasons as head coach, he led the Crimson Tide to 24 consecutive bowl appearances. At the time of his retirement, he was the winningest coach in college football history.

Gene Stallings, a former member of Bryant's famed "Junction Boys" at Texas A&M, had an amazing seven-year run with the Tide from 1990-96, leading UA to the school's 12th national title in 1992.

Alabama's current head coach, Nick Saban, has already left his stamp on the football program at the Capstone entering his sixth season. The Crimson Tide captured its second National Championship in three years and 14th overall in 2011 with a commanding 21-0 shutout of LSU in the Allstate BCS National Championship Game inside the Mercedes-Benz Superdome in New Orleans. UA went undefeated and claimed its 13th National Championship in 2009 with wins over Florida in the SEC Championship Game and Texas in the Citi BCS National Championship Game. The 2010 Crimson Tide posted a 10-3 record and won the Capital One Bowl. In 2008, the Crimson Tide went 12-2. Alabama has posted a 48-6 mark over the last four seasons.

THE ORIGINS OF THE NAME CRIMSON TIDE

In early newspaper accounts of Alabama football, the team was simply listed as "The Varsity" or the "Crimson White" after the school colors. The first nickname to become popular and used by headline writers was the "Thin Red Line." The nickname was used until 1906. The name "Crimson Tide" is supposed to have first been used by Hugh Roberts, former sports editor of the Birmingham Age-Herald. He used "Crimson Tide" in describing an Alabama-Auburn game played in Birmingham in 1907, the last football contest between the two schools until 1948 when the series was resumed. The game was played in a sea of mud and Auburn was a heavy favorite to win. But, evidently, the "Thin Red Line" played a great game in the red mud and held Auburn to a 6-6 tie, thus gaining the name "Crimson Tide." Zipp Newman, former sports editor of The Birmingham News, probably popularized the name more than any other writer.

THE BEAR

"I ain't never been nothin' but a winner."

PAUL W. "BEAR" BRYANT
ALABAMA HEAD COACH 1958-1982

LEGEND HAS IT

A young Bryant goes to the Fordyce Theatre in Arkansas where anyone who will wrestle a bear can win a dollar. Bryant wrestles the bear but the owner and the bear escape without paying. He didn't get the buck but he earned a nickname, Bear.

Paul William Bryant retired from coaching as the game's all-time winningest coach with a 323-85-17 (.780) overall record. He spent 25 of his 37 years on the sidelines at the University of Alabama, where he returned the Crimson Tide football program to national prominence.

During his time in Tuscaloosa, Bryant compiled a 232-46-9 (.824) record and directed Alabama to six national championships. He also led the Crimson Tide to 13 SEC titles, was the national coach of the year three times and the SEC coach of the year on eight occasions.

In 1958, Bryant returned to his alma mater and the rebuilding process was underway. In his second year back at the Capstone, he beat Auburn and took the Tide to its first of 25 straight bowl appearances. In 1961, Bryant's first recruiting class, highlighted by quarterback Pat Trammell, linebacker Lee Roy Jordan and lineman Billy Neighbors, helped the Tide capture the first of Bryant's six national titles.

Two more titles followed in 1964 and 1965 and despite an 11-0 record the Tide missed out on a third in 1966. In 1971, Bryant installed the "wishbone" offense to revamp the Tide program. The next 10 years, Alabama dominated the college football scene, winning 108 games, three more national titles and sending Bryant atop college football's all-time leaderboard for career wins.

In 1934, the first year of the Southeastern Conference, Bryant helped the Crimson Tide to the initial SEC Championship and a national championship. Bryant became known in football folklore as the 'other end' to Don Hutson as Alabama went 10-0 and knocked off Stanford 29-13 in the Rose Bowl to claim the school's fourth national crown.

Bryant's head coaching career began in 1945 at Maryland. The following year made the move to Kentucky for eight years and followed that with a four-year stint at Texas A&M. He guided teams to 15 conference titles, including 13 at Alabama.

BRYANT- DENNY STADIUM

"We are fortunate to play our home games in one of the finest football facilities in the nation.

Our fans enjoy fantastic campus activities prior to the game and then move into a state-of-the-art facility to watch the game. The atmosphere is second-to-none."

MAL MOORE
ALABAMA ATHLETICS DIRECTOR

With recent renovation projects of $47 and $65 million to renovate and expand the north and south end zones, Bryant-Denny Stadium is truly one of the top football facilities in the nation. The current seating capacity is 101,821 and makes Bryant-Denny Stadium one of the largest on-campus football stadiums in the nation. The most recent renovation not only pushed capacity to 101,821, but gave Bryant-Denny Stadium an additional 36 skyboxes and 1,700 club seats. The 2010 renovation marked the fourth expansion of this magnificent edifice since 1988 and the seventh time Bryant-Denny Stadium has been expanded since it was originally completed in 1929. Other expansions were completed in 1946, 1961, 1966, 1988, 1998 and 2006.

The 2006 expansion project, which began immediately following the 2004 football season, also added three levels of premium seating, a pair of large video scoreboards in the north end zone and state-of-the-art wrap-around display boards situated on the facades of the east and west upper decks.

A unique aspect of the “new” stadium is a plaza connecting the stadium with University Boulevard. The plaza, which quickly became a focal point on game-day Saturdays, honors Alabama’s national championship coaches and commemorates the Tide’s 14 national and 22 SEC titles.

The 2006 expansion added 38 luxury skyboxes, bringing the total number of skyboxes in the stadium to 123. The most recent expansion increased that number to 159 skyboxes. Also added was a club level area and traditional upper deck seating. Office space is also included, as well as a home team locker room located in the north end zone. A state-of-the-art sound system was installed in 2005.

Since those early games, a number of projects have expanded Bryant-Denny Stadium to its current capacity. When Alabama and Hawai’i met to open the 2006 season, a sellout crowd marked the largest crowd to view a college football game in the state of Alabama. That record fell when 101,821 fans filled the seats in the Crimson Tide’s 2010 season opener against San Jose State.

Included in the 1998 east side expansion were 10,000 bleacher seats and two spiral walkways to give the stadium a more symmetrical appearance. A total of 81 skyboxes, on two levels, were also added. The skyboxes were built in two sizes, 24-seat capacity (18) and 16-seat capacity (64). In 1999, four additional skyboxes were added and a scoreboard with video replay capabilities was added to the south end.

Other recent additions to Bryant-Denny Stadium include two east side reception areas for Scholarship and A-Club level patrons. These areas are located above the center entrance on the east side and include rooms large enough to host receptions and pre-game meal functions. A bank of lights was also added on the east side.

The 2011 season was only the 11th time in the stadium’s history that Alabama has played all of its home games at Bryant-Denny. From 1900 until 2003, Alabama played at least one home game at Birmingham’s Legion Field.

The Crimson Tide owns an impressive 216-47-3 (.818) all-time record in Tuscaloosa as more than 11 million fans have witnessed the Crimson Tide play in 145 home games over the last 21 seasons.

22 Conference Titles

ALABAMA FOOTBALL

Alabama has a winning record against every school in the Southeastern Conference.

The Southeastern Conference begins its 80th season of play in 2012 with two new members for the first time in 20 years. The league began play in 1933 with 13 schools - Alabama, Auburn, Florida, Georgia, Georgia Tech, Kentucky, LSU, Mississippi, Mississippi State, Sewanee, Tennessee, Tulane and Vanderbilt.

Alabama won the league's first conference title in 1933 by virtue of its 5-0-1 conference record and has won a total of 20 in the school illustrious history.

Sewanee left the conference following the 1940 season while Georgia Tech left after the 1963 season and Tulane followed after the 1965 campaign. Arkansas and South Carolina entered the SEC prior to the 1992 season and Texas A&M and Missouri begin play in the fall of 2012.

The SEC was the first conference to split into two divisions and have its regular season culminate in a conference championship game. The first SEC Championship Game was held on Dec. 5, 1992, at Legion Field in Birmingham, Ala. The SEC Championship Game moved to the Georgia Dome in 1994 and has been staged there ever since.

ALABAMA HAS BEEN A FORCE IN THE SEC OVER THE PAST FOUR SEASONS

The Crimson Tide dominated the 2008 and 2009 seasons in Southeastern Conference play with a perfect 16-0 mark in the regular season, capturing back-to-back SEC Western Division Championships and the 2009 SEC Championship. After a perfect record in 2008 and 2009, Alabama finished the 2010 league slate with a 5-3 record in fourth place. The 2011 season, which concluded the Crimson Tide's 14th National Championship with a 21-0 win over LSU in the Allstate BCS National Championship Game, began with a convincing 38-14 win over No. 14 Arkansas inside Bryant-Denny Stadium. Alabama then defeated then-unbeaten Florida by a 38-10 margin in the Swamp before shutting out Vanderbilt 34-0 back at home. A 52-7 win at Mississippi was followed by a 37-6 victory over Tennessee in Tuscaloosa before the Tide's bye week prior to the No. 1 vs. No. 2 showdown with LSU. The Bengal Tigers handed Alabama its only loss in overtime, 9-6. The Tide then dispatched the Mississippi State Bulldogs in Starkville 24-7. All that was left in the regular season was the Iron Bowl and for the third time in the last four years Alabama proved victorious with a 42-14 win on the Plains.

A-DAY PHENOMENON

Spring games across the country have taken on a whole new meaning since Alabama's A-Day Game sparked a new phenomenon in 2007 when an amazing 92,138 fans packed Bryant-Denny Stadium. Even more impressive were the 5,000-plus fans that were turned away at the gate and spent the afternoon tailgating around the stadium just like a fall Saturday when the stadium was deemed at capacity. Schools across the nation have followed the Tide's lead and begun working to make their spring games a focal point. ESPN has taken notice of the spring game excitement and started making it part of the college football coverage each spring. The ESPN family of networks have televised three of the last four A-Day Games nationally on ESPN or ESPNU. The 2012 game was televised by Comcast. The last six spring games have seen an average of 86,089 fans pack Bryant-Denny Stadium. The 2008 game had 78,200 with 84,050 showing up in 2009. A crowd of 91,312 came out in 2010 and a school-record 92,310 in 2011. The 2012 game had 78,526 in attendance. Over the past six years the Crimson Tide has drawn a mind-boggling 516,536 fans for its annual A-Day Game.

Prior to the start of Alabama's A-Day Game each spring, the Crimson Tide's permanent team captains from the previous year are forever captured at the base of Denny Chimes. The captains have their hand prints and foot prints placed in cement to recognize their roles as team leaders. The 2011 captains were safety Mark Barron, linebacker Dont'a Hightower and running back Trent Richardson.

THE NATIONAL SPOTLIGHT

Alabama has proven to be one of the top television draws in college football for its history, tradition, personalities and fans. The Crimson Tide was broadcast on network television 12 times last season. Further evidence was the presence of ESPN GameDay at four of Alabama's 2008 games, three in 2009, two more in 2010 and three in 2011. Alabama's popularity has also been a draw for national publications. The Crimson Tide has been represented on the covers of many of those publications in recent years. The Tide appeared on the cover of Sports Illustrated three times last season with Trent Richardson on the college football preview cover, Josh Chapman on the "Ram! Jam! 'Bama!" cover and the defense featured in the Tide's 21-0 shutout of LSU in the BCS National Championship Game. Alabama made one SI cover in 2010 and three times in 2009, including a cover story on Mark Ingram in November, Colin Peck following the SEC Championship Game and the 'Dynasty' cover following Alabama's 37-21 win over Texas in the BCS National Championship Game. In 2008, Glen Coffee graced the cover of Sports Illustrated following a 34-10 win over Clemson, head coach Nick Saban was featured on the cover of Forbes and the Crimson Tide program was the centerpiece of a photo essay by Sporting News. The Forbes cover was a first as Saban became the first college football coach to be featured on the cover since the publication began in 1917.

From the roaring 1920's and Wade Wallace through legendary coach Frank Thomas and on to the dynasty that was Paul "Bear" Bryant and through Gene Stallings' 1992 national championship team and finally Nick Saban's championships in 2009 and 2011, the Alabama Crimson Tide have defined college football. The Crimson Tide has captured a college football-best 14 national championships and an impressive 26 conference titles, including a conference-best 22 SEC titles. Bryant led the Tide to six national championships during his 25 years roaming the sidelines with national titles in 1961, 1964, 1965, 1973, 1978 and 1979. Wallace won Alabama's first three titles in 1925, 1926 and 1930. Thomas then led Alabama to championships in 1934 and 1941 while Stallings' 1992 team has proven to be one of the best in college football history. Saban's 2009 team carved an identity of its own with suffocating defense and an efficient and explosive offense. The team produced the school and conference's first 14-0 record and defeated No. 1 Florida in the SEC Championship Game and No. 2 Texas in the Citi BCS National Championship Game to claim the title. The 2011 team avenged a regular-season loss to LSU in the BCS National Championship with a resounding 21-0 shutout of the Tigers in New Orleans. The defense was historic in 2011, leading all four major categories nationally while the offense averaged almost 35 points per game.

THE FIRST TITLE

Alabama's football history has been about champions and the 1925 team garnered the first national title by posting a perfect 10-0 record and beating powerful Washington 20-19 in the Rose Bowl. It marked the first time a southern team had been to Pasadena and the locals appeared shocked with the Tide victory.

Senior stars Johnny Mack Brown and All-American Pooley Hubert mesmerized the crowds of the 1920s with their unique skills. Known as the "Dothan Antelope" Brown was the scourge of Bama foes. Brown scored on a 58-yard reception from Grant Gillis and a 62-yard catch from Hubert in the Rose Bowl win.

In the win over Washington, Hubert also rushed for a touchdown and starred defensively. Both Brown and Hubert would become College Football Hall of Famers. Brown and guard Bill Buckler were also All-Southern Conference selections.

PASADENA BOUND

Four teams (Alabama, Stanford, Navy and Lafayette) had been declared winners of the national championship before the Crimson Tide reached Pasadena to play Stanford in the Rose Bowl. A 7-7 tie between the Southern and Western Conference champions did not settle any scores New Years Day, 1927.

The 1926 squad featured All-Americans Hoyt "Wu" Winslett and Fred Pickhard. Three other Alabama men, backs Ernie Barnes and Herschel Caldwell and center Gordon "Sherlock" Holmes joined them on the 11-member All-Southern Conference team.

Besides the Rose Bowl standoff against Stanford, Alabama's only other challenge came in a 2-0 tiff with then-powerful Sewanne. A blocked punt that went out of the end zone by Pickhard proved to be the difference in the Sewanne contest. The very next week Pickhard blocked two punts, both resulting in touchdowns, in a 24-0 win over LSU. UA clinched a Rose Bowl berth with a 33-6 victory over Georgia on Thanksgiving Day.

FRED SINGTON

A 10-0 season, along with a 24-0 whitewashing of Washington State in the Rose Bowl gave Wallace Wade his third championship and ended an era of Tide football on a glorious note.

Extraordinary tackle Fred Sington finished an unmatched career as a student-athlete being unanimously picked to the All-America teams and earning Phi Beta Kappa honors for his toils in the classroom.

Halfback John Henry Suther joined Sington on the All-America list while super sophomore Johnny Cain and guard John Miller were All-Southern Conference picks. Incredibly in the Rose Bowl, Wade defied logic by starting his second team, feeling his team was vastly superior to the West Coast Champions. Monk Campbell earned Rose Bowl MVP honors.

Alabama shut out eight of its 10 foes with Tennessee (18-6) and Vanderbilt (12-7) holding the distinction of being the only teams to score on the 1930 Tide.

"MY BEST TEAM"

Frank Thomas candidly called it his best Alabama team and the 29-13 romp over Stanford in the Rose Bowl confirmed the coach's belief this team was special.

In an era where points were at a premium, Alabama averaged 31.4 a game while the opposition could manage but 4.5 a contest. Legendary end Don Hutson, who some 56 years later, would be named to the all-time college football team, displayed the skills that would one day earn him induction into seven different Halls of Fame (Alabama, Arkansas, Green Bay Packer, NFL, College, Helms Foundation and Wisconsin).

Tailback Dixie Howell and tackle Bill Lee joined Hutson as All-Americans. The only close game all year came in the annual heavyweight thriller with Tennessee, a 13-6 Crimson Tide win. Howell, Hutson, Lee and guard Charlie Marr earned All-SEC honors.

In the Rose Bowl, Howell scored two touchdowns, one on a scintillating 67-yard scamper. He also passed 59 yards to Hutson for another. For the game, he averaged 43.8 yards a punt, gained 111 rushing and 160 passing.

ALL-AMERICAN HOLT RAST

Alabama received a share of the 1941 title by being named to the honor roll of the Houlgate System. The Crimson Tide team finished the year 9-2 with conference losses to Mississippi State and Vanderbilt.

The 1941 team was gifted with brilliant end Holt Rast earning unanimous All-America accolades and plaudits of being one of the best 11 players in the first 50 years of Alabama football.

Along with a 29-21 victory over SWC Champion Texas A&M in the Cotton Bowl, significant wins for the Tide came against Georgia, featuring future Heisman Trophy winner Frankie Sinkwich, Tennessee, Georgia Tech and Miami. In the Cotton Bowl win, halfback Jimmy Nelson returned a punt 72 yards for one touchdown and scored on a 21-yard run for another. Rast, concluding his career, returned an interception for a touchdown and Russ Craft scored twice. After the game, Nelson, Rast and Don Whitmire shared MVP honors.

SUGAR BOWL CHAMPS

As far-fetched as it sounded back when he was recruiting his first class four years before, Paul Bryant's promise of a national championship proved as accurate as his precise demand for excellence.

Led by quarterback Pat Trammell, center/linebacker Lee Roy Jordan and two-way line star Billy Neighbors, Alabama ascended to the pinnacle of the college football world, winning all 11 games and being named the No. 1 team in America.

Alabama outscored its foes 297-25 and after Tennessee managed a field goal in a 34-3 loss to the Tide, no one scored again until Arkansas equaled that three-point output in the Sugar Bowl.

North Carolina State, led by future NFL star quarterback Roman Gabriel, fell to the Tide 26-7; the seven points were the most yielded to an opponent during the entire season.

Neighbors was a unanimous All-America selection while Jordan and Trammell were second-team picks. It would be the first of six national title runs for Bryant during his 25-year career at Alabama.

Gimpy-legged Joe Namath aired his immense talents to a nationally-televised audience in the first ever night Orange Bowl game.

Namath and his teammates contended then and now the star quarterback scored what would have been a game winner on a sneak play from the Longhorn six-inch line in the fourth quarter. One official ruled him in, the other out, and in the end it was a 21-17 Texas win.

Despite the controversial loss to Texas, Alabama was the AP and UPI National Champion. Namath's knee injury vs. North Carolina State gave backup Steve Sloan the chance to lead the Tide to wins over Florida, Tennessee, Mississippi State and LSU. Namath, who came off the bench in the final minutes against Georgia Tech, sparked a 24-7 win over the Yellow Jackets that ended the bitter series for 15 years.

Roy Ogden's unforgettable 108-yard kickoff return and Namath-to-Ray Perkins touchdown pass were key plays in a 21-14 win over Auburn on Thanksgiving Day.

Namath, halfback-kicker David Ray, tackle Dan Kearley and guard Wayne Freeman were named to different All-American teams.

ORANGE BOWL CHAMPS

The 1965 edition of the Alabama Crimson Tide got off to a slow start, losing its first game of the season to Georgia 18-17. However, the Crimson Tide quickly rebounded with wins over Tulane, Ole Miss and Vanderbilt. Alabama finished off the season with a 30-3 thumping of in-state rival Auburn. This victory also gave the Crimson Tide the SEC title, their second in a row.

The Crimson Tide's season earned them a No. 4 ranking and an invitation to the 1966 Orange Bowl where they would face the Nebraska Cornhuskers. The national title seemed a long shot for both teams but with number one Michigan State falling to UCLA in the Rose Bowl and number two Arkansas losing to LSU in the Cotton Bowl earlier in the day, it appeared that the outcome of the Orange Bowl would decide the national champion.

The two teams traded blows for much of the game but the arm of Steve Sloan proved too much for the Huskers. Sloan went 20-of-28 passing to break the Orange Bowl pass completion record set just one year earlier by fellow Tide quarterback Joe Namath. Sloan finished the game with 296 passing yards, also setting an Orange Bowl standard and giving Alabama a 39-28 victory and the 1965 national championship.

CLASH OF THE TITANS

HALFBACK
WILBUR JACKSON

It was the first meeting ever between the two giants of college football and the game was promoted so heavily even the fans tired of all the advance publicity. It was "The Game" of all-time in a lot of ways, and it certainly lived up to every inch of newspaper space and moment of radio-TV air time.

Notre Dame won, 24-23, in one of the all-time classics of college football. It had everything you could want in a football game and Notre Dame vaulted from third to first in the final AP rankings.

Alabama had finished first in both polls in the regular season and remained the UPI champion. Seldom do games live up to all the advance and frenzied billing. But when Ara Parseghian of Notre Dame and Bear Bryant of Alabama unleashed two of the finest college teams in history onto the Sugar Bowl's soggy artificial turf, this game caught the fancy of the entire football world.

GOAL-LINE STAND

Coach Bryant's 1978 Alabama Crimson Tide squad started off the season with a convincing 20-3 win over the Nebraska Cornhuskers in front of a packed house in Birmingham. Alabama would go on to win 11 games in '78. The only loss of the season came at the hands of the USC Trojans in Birmingham in a 28-14 battle. Alabama then tore through eight straight opponents on its way to a No. 2 ranking and a bid to play in the 1979 Sugar Bowl against Joe Paterno's No. 1-ranked Penn State Nittany Lions.

The game was close and physical all the way to the end with Alabama outgaining Penn State on the ground 208-19 and Penn State outgaining Alabama through the air 163-91. Crimson Tide running back Major Ogilvie was quoted after the game as saying, "It was, by far, the hardest hitting game I've participated in. There's not even a close second."

Alabama secured the win and the national championship on one of the most legendary plays in Crimson Tide history. On a fourth down and inches play from just outside the Alabama goal line Joe Paterno called on tailback Matt Guman to take the ball up the middle into the heart of the Crimson Tide defense. He was met head on by a host of Alabama defenders led by All-American linebacker Barry Krauss who stopped Guman just shy of the goal line to lock up the 14-7 Sugar Bowl victory and the national title.

The 1979 Alabama Crimson Tide was fierce to say the least. Alabama's defense posted shutouts against Baylor, Wichita State, Florida, LSU and Miami. Alabama outscored five of its opponents on the season by 30 points or more, the biggest margin of victory coming against Vanderbilt in a 66-3 game. Alabama capped off the undefeated regular season by beating Auburn 25-18 and Miami 30-0.

After its perfect 11-0 regular season, Coach Bryant's Crimson Tide team returned to the Sugar Bowl in New Orleans again for the second straight year. This time the Crimson Tide would face its future SEC West rival in the University of Arkansas Razorbacks, who were then a part of the Southwest Conference.

Alabama was led by running back Major O'Grove as the Tide outgained the Razorbacks 284-97 in rushing yards. O'Grove scored two touchdowns in a 24-9 victory that gave the Crimson Tide its 11th national title and Coach Bryant his sixth and final championship.

HIGH TIDE

Head Coach Gene Stallings' Crimson Tide team was led in the '92 season by a tenacious defense that held 10 of its 13 opponents to 11 points or less. The offense was led by the arm of quarterback Jay Barker who threw for 1,614 yards and the legs of running back Derrick Lasic who ran for 905 yards on the season. The Alabama defense had 22 interceptions on the year, defensive backs Antonio Langham and George Teague were tied atop the list with six a piece.

The Crimson Tide started off the season with a 25-8 win over SEC rival Vanderbilt and continued this winning streak all the way to the Sugar Bowl. Some of the highlights of this perfect season were a 17-10 victory over Tennessee, a 17-0 win against in state rival Auburn and a 28-21 win over Steve Spurrier's Florida Gators in the SEC Championship game.

Alabama's perfect regular season record led them to a No. 2 ranking and another visit to the Sugar Bowl to face 1992 Heisman Trophy winning quarterback Geno Torretta and the No. 1 ranked Miami Hurricanes. The Crimson Tide was a heavy underdog to the boisterous Miami team. However, from the opening kickoff to the final whistle Alabama dominated the Hurricanes and their Heisman winning quarterback leading to a 34-13 victory, a perfect 13-0 season and the Crimson Tide's 12th national championship.

Nick Saban's 2009 National Championship team had the perfect combination of suffocating defense, a potent rushing attack, a winning quarterback and outstanding special teams. The 2009 team captured the program's 13th national championship and the school's 22nd SEC Championship with a 14-0 record. The Crimson Tide conquered every challenge placed in front of them, including a 32-13 thrashing of top-ranked Florida in the SEC Championship Game and a 37-21 triumph over Texas in the Citi BCS National Championship Game at the Rose Bowl in Pasadena, Calif.

The Crimson Tide produced a record six first-team Associated Press All-Americans and eight first-team All-SEC selections. Mark Ingram became Alabama's first Heisman Trophy winner and Rolando McClain claimed the Butkus Award and the Lambert Award, given to the nation's top linebacker. Ingram set a school record with 1,658 yards rushing with 20 total touchdowns while averaging 189.0 all-purpose yards and nine touchdowns in six games against nationally-ranked opponents. McClain led the team with 105 tackles while accounting for 14.5 tackles for loss, four sacks, two interceptions, four pass breakups and 14 quarterback hurries. First-year starting quarterback Greg McElroy completed 61 percent of his passes for 2,508 yards with 17 touchdowns. His 81.25 pass attempts for every interception thrown in 2009 was the second-best mark in SEC history, behind only Peyton Manning.

Alabama knocked off six Top 25 opponents on the way to the national championship with wins over No. 7 Virginia Tech, No. 16 Mississippi, No. 22 South Carolina, No. 9 LSU, No. 1 Florida and No. 2 Texas. Maybe the Tide's toughest wins came in hotly contested games with rivals Tennessee and Auburn. UA used two blocked field goals by Terrence Cody against the Vols to escape with a 12-10 win and then used a fourth-quarter drive, engineered McElroy, for a 26-21 win over the Tigers on the Plains.

DOMINATION IN THE DOME

The 2011 Alabama Crimson Tide claimed the school's 14th National Championship behind one of the best defenses in the history of college football, a powerful running game and a veteran leadership group that kept the Tide focused through all of the peaks and valleys of a challenging season. Alabama kept its composure following a 9-6 overtime loss to LSU in the ninth week of the season and earned a rematch with the Tigers in the 2012 Allstate BCS National Championship Game inside the Mercedes-Benz Superdome. The rematch only proved the divide between the Crimson Tide and the rest of college football as UA handed the previously undefeated Tigers a resounding 21-0 loss in the season's title game. It was the first shutout in Bowl Championship Series history and the first time since Miami in 1991 that a team pitched a shutout to secure the national title.

Alabama produced an astounding seven first-team All-Americans, including Mark Barron, Barrett Jones, Dont'a Hightower, Dre Kirkpatrick, DeQuan Menzie, Trent Richardson and Courtney Upshaw. Richardson became Alabama's first Doak Walker Award winner and finished third in the Heisman Trophy voting. Jones won the Outland Trophy, the Wuerffel Trophy and the ARA Sportsman Award. Carson Tinker also accepted the Disney Spirit Award for the team's efforts following the April 27, 2011, tornado that ravaged Tuscaloosa.

Richardson set a school record with 1,679 yards rushing with 24 total touchdowns and 21 rushing scores. Hightower led the team with 85 total tackles while Upshaw accounted for a team-high 18 tackles for loss (-90 yards) and 9.5 sacks (-62 yards) while recording one interception return for a touchdown, two forced fumbles and 11 quarterback hurries. First-year starting quarterback AJ McCarron completed 66.8 percent of his passes for 2,634 yards with 16 touchdowns. McCarron threw just five interceptions or one ever 65.6 pass attempts in 2011, which was the third-best mark in SEC history, behind only Peyton Manning and Greg McElroy.

The Crimson Tide won its 12 games by an average of 29.1 points per game and outscored all opponents by a margin of 453-106. Alabama beat the likes No. 23 Penn State, No. 14 Arkansas, No. 12 Florida and No. 1 LSU on its way to the National Championship while finishing 7-1 in the SEC. The Tide traveled to Penn State for a 27-11 win and then came home to defeat the high-powered Razorbacks 38-14. UA rolled in a trip to the Swamp with a 38-10 win over the Gators and was victorious against Tennessee 37-6. The Iron Bowl was all crimson and white as the Crimson Tide beat Auburn 42-14 on the plains without allowing the Tigers to score an offensive touchdown.

Defensively, Alabama put together one of the best seasons in the modern era of college football. The Crimson Tide led the nation in the four major categories: scoring defense (8.2 ppg), total defense (183.6 ypg), rush defense (72.2 ppg) and pass efficiency defense (83.69) while also leading the nation in pass defense at 111.46 ypg. Alabama was just the second team to lead the nation in all four defensive categories and the first since Oklahoma in 1986. On the offensive side of the football, the Tide averaged 429.6 yards per game while scoring 34.85 points per game, statistics that ranked fourth and fifth respectively in school history.

Head Coach: Wallace Wade
Team Captain: Bruce Jones

Fact: Alabama outscored its 10 opponents by a combined total of 297 to 26, shutting out eight teams and clinching national honors with a monumental 20-19 win over Washington in the Rose Bowl.

1926

Head Coach: Wallace Wade
Team Captain: Emile "Red" Barnes

Fact: The Crimson Tide won its second consecutive national title in impressive style, posting shutouts in six games and not allowing any opponent to score more than seven points in a game.

1930

Head Coach: Wallace Wade
Team Captain: Charles B. Clement

Fact: What was perhaps Wallace Wade's greatest team was tested only twice - by Tennessee and Vanderbilt - on the way to an undefeated season in which Alabama outscored opponents by a combined total of 217 to 13. The Tide capped off the season with a 24-0 shellacking of Washington State in the Rose Bowl.

1934

Head Coach: Frank Thomas
Team Captain: William Lee

Fact: A tough October win over Tennessee (13-6) paved the way for the Tide's first national title under head coach Frank Thomas. Alabama closed its impressive undefeated season with a 29-13 domination of Stanford in the Rose Bowl.

1941

Team Captain: John Wyhonic

Fact: Rated the nation's best team by the Houlgate system, the 1941 Crimson Tide capped a 9-2 season with a remarkable 29-21 win over a powerful Texas A&M team in the Cotton Bowl in Dallas.

A TRADITION

1961
11-0

Head Coach: Paul "Bear" Bryant
Team Captains: Pat Trammell, Billy Neighbors

Fact: A suffocating defense, a steady offense, and opportunistic special teams made this unit impossible to defeat. Alabama shutout six opponents overall, not allowing its final five foes in the regular season to score before capping the season with a 10-3 win over Arkansas in the Sugar Bowl.

1964
10-1

Head Coach: Paul "Bear" Bryant
Team Captains: Jon Namath, Ray Ogden

Fact: Awarded the title on a consensus basis at the end of the regular season, this squad eked out close wins over Florida (17-14), LSU (17-9) and Auburn (21-14) to earn the national title. A controversial Orange Bowl loss to Texas, 21-17, was the only blemish on Alabama's glorious season.

1965

Head Coach: Paul "Bear" Bryant
Team Captains: Steve Sloan, Paul Crane

Fact: The nation respected this team so much that the Tide was named consensus national champions despite a season-opening loss at Georgia (18-17) and a midseason tie with Tennessee (7-7). Alabama's stunning 39-28 Orange Bowl win over previously dominant Nebraska removed any doubt of the Tide's legitimacy as national champions.

1973

Head Coach: Paul "Bear" Bryant
Team Captains: Wilbur Jackson, Chuck Strickland

Fact: The last national champions to be crowned at the end of the regular season, the Crimson Tide outscored its first 11 opponents 454 to 89 en route to a showdown in the Sugar Bowl with Notre Dame.

1978
11-1

Head Coach: Paul "Bear" Bryant

Team Captains: Marty Lyons, Jeff Rutledge, Tony Nathan

Fact: The Crimson Tide lost only to co-national title contender Southern California in the regular season. Alabama's memorable 14-7 win over Penn State in the Sugar Bowl was the climax of an impressive season.

1979

Head Coach: Paul "Bear" Bryant

Team Captains: Don McNeal, Steve Whitman

Fact: The consensus national champions outscored their 12 opponents by a total of 383 to 67. After a comeback win over Auburn (25-18) to end the regular season, Alabama dominated Arkansas and leaped to the top of the polls after their win in the Sugar Bowl.

1992

Head Coach: Gene Stallings

Team Captains: Derrick Oden, George Teague, George Wilson, Prince Wimbley

Fact: This team had it all. After a tight win over Florida (28-21) in the SEC title game, Alabama then crushed Miami in the Sugar Bowl to seal the title for its 12th National Championship.

2009
14-0

Head Coach: Nick Saban

Team Captains: Javier Arenas, Mike Johnson, Rolando McClain

Fact: Two blocked field goals propelled the Tide to a midseason win over Tennessee and into the SEC Championship Game where they exacted revenge on Florida with a dominating 32-13 win. UA then blitzed Texas in the BCS National Championship Game, 37-21.

2011

Head Coach: Nick Saban

Team Captains: Mark Barron, Dont'a Hightower, Trent Richardson

Fact: Alabama overcame an early November overtime loss to No. 1 LSU and earned a rematch in the 2012 BCS National Championship Game. In the Bayou Bengals backyard, the Mercedes-Benz Superdome, the Crimson Tide exacted revenge with a 21-0 shutout, which was the first in BCS history.

THE HEISMAN

In 2009, Alabama sophomore running back Mark Ingram became the 75th recipient of the Heisman Trophy and first Crimson Tide player to ever take home the honor.

"The legacy of Alabama football certainly had a void filled."

NICK SABAN
ON THE FIRST HEISMAN BEING AWARDED AT ALABAMA

Alabama boasts a rich and storied football history. Alabama has won 14 national championships, 26 conference championships, had 104 first-team All-Americans, 23 members of the College Football Hall of Fame and numerous national award winners. But until 2009, Alabama had never laid claim to the most celebrated and sought-after award in college athletics – the Heisman Trophy. The Heisman Trophy is a national symbol of the collegiate football experience and unmatched competitiveness. The Crimson Tide had been represented by numerous finalists over the years, but none of the first 74 Heisman Trophies found a home in Tuscaloosa.

All of that changed as a sophomore from Flint, Mich., burst into the nation's consciousness in 2009 breaking tackles all the way to the Nokia Theater in New York City's Times Square where Mark Ingram became Alabama's first Heisman Trophy winner. He edged out Stanford's Toby Gerhart by 28 points to capture the most coveted award in college football, tallying 1,304 points and 227 first-place votes in the closest Heisman Trophy vote in the award's 75-year history.

Ingram is one of 10 players in Southeastern Conference history to win the Heisman Trophy as the SEC has produced three in the last four years, joining 2007 winner Tim Tebow (Florida) and 2010 winner Cam Newton (Auburn). Other SEC winners include Frank Sinkwich (Georgia, 1942), Billy Cannon (LSU, 1959), Steve Spurrier (Florida, 1966), Pat Sullivan (Auburn, 1971), Herschel Walker (Georgia, 1982), Bo Jackson (Auburn, 1985) and Danny Wuerffel (Florida, 1996).

Ingram produced a 2009 season that was one for the Alabama football history books. He rushed for a school-record 1,658 yards with 20 total touchdowns in 14 games for 118.43 yards per game average to rank 11th nationally and second in the SEC. Ingram added 30 receptions for 322 yards and three scores. His 1,992 all-purpose yards is the second-highest single-season total in school history. Ingram also gained an astonishing 1,075 yards - or 54 percent of his all-purpose yards - after contact. His numbers climbed even higher when the Crimson Tide's opponent were ranked in the top 25, accounting for 1,134 all-purpose yards or 189.0 ypg, six games against top-25 foes, including four against top-10 teams.

Known as the DAC Trophy when it was first presented to Jay Berwagner, the legendary "one man gang" of the University of Chicago on December 9, 1935, the bronze statue depicts a football player side-stepping and straight arming a tackler. Cast in the highly artistic method known as the lost wax process of bronze medal molding, the statue weighs 45 pounds and is 14 inches long, 13 and a half inches in height and six and a half inches in width. It was designed by New York sculptor Frank Eliscu, who was commissioned by the Downtown Athletic Club to create a figure of a football player in imperishable bronze to serve as an annual trophy award. Eliscu used his friend, Ed Smith, a starter on the New York University Football team, as the player model for his initial creations.

However, reference to the award as the DAC trophy was only used once. Following the death of John Heisman in October, 1936 (Heisman at the time was the Director of Athletics at the Downtown Athletic Club), the award was renamed the Heisman Memorial Trophy. Today, the annual award involves the use of two statues. One is presented to the college football player selected for excellence and this remains the permanent possession of the winner. A second trophy is awarded to the school represented by the winner.

Walt Disney

Walt Disney World.

Alabama has enjoyed a historic run of success on the national stage over the past five years with Crimson Tide athletes capturing seven national awards in that time. This past year saw Trent Richardson win the school's first Doak Walker Award while Barrett Jones won the Outland Trophy and the Wuerffel Trophy. Carson Tinker also accepted the Disney Spirit Award on behalf of the entire 2011 Alabama football team for its response in the wake of the April 27, 2011, tornado that ravaged Tuscaloosa.

BUTKUS AWARD

Alabama has had two Butkus Award winners in its history with Derrick Thomas winning in 1988 and Rolando McClain in 2009. The Butkus Award was formed in 1985 and is one of the elite individual honors in college football. In 2008, the Butkus Foundation took stewardship of the award to fully realize its original purpose of honoring athletic achievement and service to the community while honoring the nation's best college linebacker. An independent Butkus Award Selection Committee, headed by Pro Football Weekly's Hub Arkush, and comprised of 51 experts conduct the selection process.

DOAK WALKER AWARD

The Doak Walker Award was created in 1989 to recognize the nation's premier running back for his accomplishments on the field, achievements in the classroom and citizenship in the community. Trent Richardson became Alabama's first winner in 2011 after a record-setting season at the Capstone. The Doak Walker Award is the only major college football award that requires all candidates to be in good academic standing and on schedule to graduate within one year of other students of the same classification.

LOMBARDI AWARD

The Rotary Lombardi Award has a storied history with college football and the University of Alabama. Cornelius Bennett (1986) is the only Crimson Tide player to win the award, but UA has had nine finalists, including both Don'ta Hightower and Courtney Upshaw in 2011. Criteria for the award require that a player be a down lineman on either side of the ball or a linebacker who lines up no further than five yards from the ball. Now in its 43rd year, the Rotary Lombardi Award's two key elements remain unchanged: it is open to all college linemen and all net proceeds are contributed to the American Cancer Society.

LOTT TROPHY

The Lott IMPACT Trophy was established by The Pacific Club IMPACT Foundation to honor college football's Defensive IMPACT Player of the Year. The award is unique because it represents the first trophy to give equal weight to personal character as well as athletic performance from a defensive college player and is the first national college football award based on the West Coast. Alabama's DeMeco Ryans captured the award in 2005 and is the only Tide player to receive the honor. The Lott IMPACT Trophy is named in honor of Ronnie Lott.

OUTLAND TROPHY

The Outland Trophy is awarded to the best interior lineman in college football. Barrett Jones (2011) is the third Alabama player to be honored, joining Chris Samuels (1999) and Andre Smith (2008). The Football Writers Association of America (FWAA) selects the winner from interior linemen on its 25-man All-America team. Awarded annually by the FWAA since 1946, it is named after the late John Outland, a lineman at Pennsylvania in the early 20th century. The Outland Trophy is the third oldest award in major college football.

DISNEY SPIRIT AWARD

The Disney Sports Spirit Award has been presented each year since 1996 to college football's most inspirational player, team or figure. The Alabama football team, represented by Carson Tinker, was recognized for its efforts following the April 27, 2011, tornado that tore through Tuscaloosa. The award is not based on statistics or other on-field records or achievements, but for bravery, courage, overcoming adversity, and the love of college football.

JIM THORPE AWARD

The Jim Thorpe Award is presented annually to the best defensive back in college football. It was created in 1986. Winners are judged on their performance on the field, athletic ability and character. Antonio Langham (1992) is the only Alabama player to win the award among numerous Crimson Tide finalists and semifinalists. A screening committee of the Jim Thorpe Association members follows the athletes and narrows the list to three finalists, who are then voted on by a national panel.

JOHNNY UNITAS GOLDEN ARM AWARD

The Golden Arm Award, presented annually to the top senior quarterback by the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Foundation, encapsulates all that is positive in college sports. The award acknowledges performance on the field and values character, citizenship, integrity and those who honor the game. Jay Barker is the only Alabama quarterback to be honored with the Johnny Unitas Gold Arm Award, winning in 1994.

WUERFFEL TROPHY

The Wuerffel Trophy is presented by the All Sports Association of Fort Walton Beach, Fla., to the college football player who best combines exemplary community service with athletic and academic achievement. Barrett Jones became the first Alabama player to win The Wuerffel Trophy in 2011. The award, named after former Fort Walton Beach native Danny Wuerffel, is presented annually to the Football Bowl Subdivision player that best combines exemplary community service with academic and athletic achievement.

Former Alabama defensive lineman Marty Lyons was named to the 2011 class of the College Football Hall of Fame by the College Football Hall.

Lyons, a native of Pinellas Park, Florida, was one of the Crimson Tide's great defensive linemen who played for legendary coach Paul "Bear" Bryant from 1976-78. He was a consensus All-American in 1978 and a two-time All-SEC selection in 1977 and 1978.

Lyons becomes the 23rd Alabama player or coach to be selected into the College Football Hall of Fame. Lyons, who was part of "The Goal Line Stand" in the 1979 Sugar Bowl, helped the Crimson Tide turn back Penn State 14-7 to capture the 1978 national championship.

He made 59 tackles with five tackles for loss in 1977 to earn first-team All-SEC honors before turning in a dominating senior campaign. Lyons' 1978 season included consensus All-America and All-SEC honors after recording 119 tackles and 15 tackles for loss. He served as a defensive captain for the 1978 national championship team and was selected to the Tide's Team of the Century and to the all-decade team of the 1970s.

Following his senior season, Lyons played in the 1979 Senior Bowl and the East-West Shrine Bowl. He was selected by the New York Jets with the 14th pick of the first round in the 1979 NFL Draft. Lyons played 11 NFL seasons, amassing 29 sacks as part of the Jets "New York Sack Exchange." He helped lead the Jets to the playoffs in 1982, 1985 and 1986.

NFL DRAFT

THE NATIONAL FOOTBALL LEAGUE

Names such as Shaun Alexander, Cornelius Bennett, Joe Namath, Chris Samuels and Kenny Stabler have starred on the NFL gridiron after their career at Alabama. Recently, linebacker Demeco Ryans was the 2006 NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year and a 2008 Pro Bowl selection. Alabama had four first-round draft picks in 2010 and 2011 while churning out and 24 draft picks over the past four years, including 11 in the first round. Those 11 first rounders are Andre Smith (No. 6, Cincinnati, 2009), Rolando McClain (No. 8, Oakland, 2010), Kareem Jackson (No. 20, Houston, 2010), Marcell Dareus (No. 3 Buffalo, 2011), Julio Jones (No. 6, Atlanta, 2011), James Carpenter (No. 25, Seattle, 2011), Mark Ingram (No. 28, New Orleans, 2011), Trent Richardson (No. 3, Cleveland, 2012), Mark Barron (No. 7, Tampa Bay, 2012), Dre Kirkpatrick (No. 17, Cincinnati, 2012) and Dont'a Hightower (No. 25, New England, 2012). Count Courtney Upshaw, who went three picks into the second round, and Alabama had five players taken in the first 35 picks in the 2012 NFL Draft.

HALL OF FAME

ALABAMA PLAYERS IN THE PRO FOOTBALL

DON HUTSON

1963

GREEN BAY PACKERS 1935-45
ALABAMA 1932-34

Don Hutson could outmaneuver and outrace virtually every defender in the league. He led the NFL in receiving in eight of his 11 seasons and in scoring five straight years. Twice, in 1941 and 1942, he was named the league's MVP.

When Hutson retired in 1945 after 11 superb seasons, he held 18 NFL records, including 488 career receptions.

BART STARR

1977

GREEN BAY PACKERS 1956-1971
ALABAMA 1952-55

Bart Starr was a 17th-round draft choice of the Green Bay Packers in 1956. Three years later, his playing time was still limited and his football future appeared in doubt. That's when Vince Lombardi took over as the Packers coach, an event that may have saved Starr's NFL career.

Lombardi, in tireless study of films, found that he liked Barr's mechanics, his arm, his ball-handling techniques and, most of all, his decision-making abilities. Under Vince's careful nurturing, Starr gained the confidence to become one of the NFL's great field leaders.

JOE NAMATH

NEW YORK JETS 1965-1976
ALABAMA 1962-64

Joe Namath is best remembered for his performance in the New York Jets' stunning 16-7 upset of the heavily favored Baltimore Colts in Super Bowl III. However, during his 13-year tenure from 1965 through 1977 he was one of the game's most exciting, proficient and publicized quarterbacks.

Namath earned all-league accolades four times in his career (1967, 1968, 1969, and 1972) and was named to the all-time AFL honor team in 1969. He was also elected to four AFL all-star games and one AFC-NFC Pro Bowl.

The Kansas City Chiefs selected linebacker Derrick Thomas as the fourth player overall in the 1989 National Football League Draft. A consensus All-America and Dick Butkus Award winner at Alabama, Thomas excelled as a pass rusher who set the school record for sacks.

His pass rushing specialty continued on the professional level as he amassed 10 sacks as a rookie for the Chiefs in 1989. He also added 75 tackles that season to earn Defensive Rookie of the Year honors. Following the season, Thomas was named to the first of nine straight Pro Bowls.

His extraordinary pass rushing skills continued throughout his 11-season career that was tragically cut short by his death following an automobile accident shortly after the 1999 NFL regular season.

No player amassed more sacks during the decade of 1990s than the 116.5 sacks by Thomas. He finished his career with 126.5 sacks which was the fourth-highest total by a linebacker in NFL history. Thomas had 10 or more sacks in a season seven times and recorded multi-sack games 27 times during his 169-game career.

His contribution to the Chiefs franchise was nearly immeasurable. Prior to his arrival in Kansas City, the team had made just one playoff appearance since 1971. In the 11 years that Thomas anchored the defense, the Chiefs finished first or second in the AFC West ten times, made seven playoff appearances, and won three division titles.

JOHN HANNAH

NEW ENGLAND PATRIOTS 1973-1985
ALABAMA 1970-72

John Hannah, a 6-2, 265-pound guard from Alabama, was the first-round pick of the New England Patriots and the fourth player selected in the 1973 National Football League Draft. He was an eight-letterman star in football, track and wrestling and a two-time grid All-America at Alabama.

John finished his career after the 1985 season on a high note. His final campaign had produced an AFC championship and Super Bowl XX appearance for the Patriots, and All-Pro honors and a Pro Bowl invitation for himself.

DWIGHT STEPHENSON

MIAMI DOLPHINS 1980-1987
ALABAMA 1977-79

Dwight Stephenson, who was born November 20, 1957, in Murfreesboro, North Carolina, was quiet, intense, hard-working and competitive offensive lineman out of the University of Alabama. He was an exceptionally quick blocker and he possessed an explosive charge off the snap. He was the Dolphins offensive captain and his presence as the anchor of the offensive line was a major factor in the Dolphins' record of allowing the fewest quarterback sacks in the NFL for six straight years.

OZZIE NEWSOME

CLEVELAND BROWNS 1978-1990
ALABAMA 1974-77

Throughout his 13-season, 198-game NFL career with the Cleveland Browns from 1978 to 1990, Ozzie Newsome was a fixture at tight end, a true team leader in every respect, and one of only five players in Browns history to play in parts of three decades.

Nicknamed the "Wizard of Oz," Newsome became the leading tight end receiver in NFL history with 662 receptions for 7,980 yards and 47 touchdowns. He ranked the fourth leading receiver when he retired.

when dealing with student-athletes.

WHO IS A REPRESENTATIVE OF ALABAMA INTERESTS?

SOMEONE WHO:

- Has ever made any type of financial or in-kind contribution to the athletics department, to a specific sport program or to an athletics booster organization, including purchasing donor seating to athletics events (i.e., Tide Pride Football or Tide Pride Basketball)
- Is or has been a member of any organization or agency promoting University of Alabama athletics (i.e., Red Elephant Club, Grand Slammers, etc.);
- Has ever helped to arrange - or has provided employment for - an enrolled student-athlete, a prospective student-athlete or their parents or relatives;
- Has ever assisted in any manner in the recruitment of prospective student-athletes;
- Has ever provided benefits to enrolled student-athletes or their families or to prospective student-athletes or their families;
- Has otherwise promoted the institution's athletics program in any manner.

WHO IS A PROSPECTIVE STUDENT-ATHLETE?

NCAA rules stipulate that a prospective student-athlete is a person who has started classes for the ninth (9th) grade, regardless of his/her athletic ability.

A prospective student-athlete remains a prospect even after he or she has signed a National Letter of Intent or accepts an offer of financial aid to attend The University of Alabama until he/she reports for the first day of classes for a regular term (fall or spring).

WHAT ABOUT STUDENT-ATHLETE APPEARANCES & PROMOTIONS?

Student-athletes are prohibited from being involved in the advertisement, recommendation or promotion of sales or use of any commercial product or service of any kind. All charitable, educational and nonprofit promotional activities involving student-athletes must have prior approval from the athletics department. All student-athlete appearances for such events are coordinated through the UA Athletics Life Skills Office. For information, please call (205) 348-6618.

NCAA legislation expressly prohibits University supporters from providing "extra benefits" to student-athletes. An extra benefit is any special arrangement to provide a student-athlete or his/her family a benefit not authorized by NCAA legislation. In general, you may not provide anything or make special arrangements for student-athletes or prospective student-athletes that are not available to the general student population.

- providing cash or loans, or signing for a loan;
- a guarantee of bond;
- the use of an automobile;
- gifts of any kind, including birthday cards;
- gift of clothing or equipment;
- providing loans to relatives or friends;
- any tangible items, including merchandise;
- free or reduced-cost services, rentals or purchases of any type;
- free or reduced-cost housing;
- gift of cash or like items;
- providing special discounts for goods and services (e.g., car repairs, haircuts, etc.)
- purchasing complimentary admissions from a student-athlete
- providing an honorarium to a student-athlete for a speaking engagement

WHAT ABOUT STUDENT-ATHLETE EMPLOYMENT?

Student-athletes receiving athletics grants-in-aid will be eligible for employment during the regular academic year. Student-athletes will continue to be eligible for employment during the University's official vacation periods (i.e., Christmas, Spring Break) and during the summer. Very detailed rules regarding which student-athletes may be employed, when and how much money they can earn must be followed. In addition, the Compliance Office must keep written records verifying all student-athlete employment. If you have an interest in hiring a student-athlete, you must first contact the University's Compliance Office prior to employing the student-athlete. Failure to contact the Compliance Office prior to employing a student-athlete could jeopardize the student-athlete's eligibility to participate in intercollegiate athletics at Alabama and could result in an NCAA violation for the student-athlete's sport.

WHAT ARE THE RULES GOVERNING GAMBLING?

A student-athlete, coach and/or employee of The University of Alabama may not provide information to individuals involved in any type of organized gambling concerning sporting events. In addition, student-athletes, coaches and employees of The University of Alabama may not solicit or accept any wager on any intercollegiate or professional athletics contest.

WHAT ABOUT RECRUITING?

As a representative of Alabama's athletics' interests, you may not:

- contact a prospect's coach, principal or counselor in an effort to evaluate a prospect;
- visit the prospect's institution to pick up film or transcripts pertaining to the evaluation of the prospect's academic eligibility or athletic ability;
- contact a prospect, his/her parents, legal guardians or spouse on or off the Alabama campus;
- contact a prospect by telephone or by letter;
- make special arrangements for entertainment for recruiting purposes;
- provide reduced cost products or services to a prospect.

"THE NICK SABAN SHOW" and "HEY, COACH"

Alabama fans again will have an opportunity to talk with Crimson Tide coach Nick Saban each Thursday night on his weekly radio show. Tom Roberts hosts the 60-minute coaches' call-in show following "Hey, Coach" each Thursday night at 6:30 p.m. The first broadcast is set for August 16. Fans can join the program by calling toll-free 877-202-BAMA (2262).

CTSM

crimson tide sports marketing

From opening day on September 1 through the bowl game, Alabama fans will hear all the action of Alabama football on the Crimson Tide Sports Network (CTSN). More than 50 radio stations in Alabama and around the south will broadcast Alabama football games in 2012.

Now in his third decade as the voice of the Tide is Eli Gold. He's called the action of every Crimson Tide game since 1989. A nationally known sportscaster, Eli is also the host of "NASCAR Live", a weekly, nationally syndicated radio call-in show. His broadcasting career includes play-by-play for NFL, Arena Football League and NHL games on radio and television.

Providing the color analysis is former Crimson Tide assistant coach Phil Savage, who's been on the crew since 2008. A Mobile native and currently Executive Director of the Senior Bowl, Savage has extensive NFL experience as an assistant coach with the Cleveland Browns (under defensive coordinator Nick Saban), Director of Player Personnel for the Baltimore Ravens and Senior Vice President and General Manager of the Browns.

Chris Stewart will patrol the sidelines during the game to keep fans up-to-date and then will head to the locker room for postgame interviews with coach Saban and Bama players. A member of the crew since 1999, Stewart is also the voice of men's basketball and baseball.

Tyler Watts and Todd Robbins start and end the game-day broadcast. Watts starred at quarterback for Alabama from 1999 to 2001 and joined the CTSN team in 2007. He will join Stewart for pay-per-view telecasts. Robbins has produced the pre-game and postgame shows for the network since 2005.

The veteran of the CTSN crew is Tom Roberts, who joined the broadcast team in 1979. He hosts the pre-game show, provides scoreboard updates throughout the game and hosts the halftime report.

Starting in 1984, Tom Stipe has produced the CTSN football broadcasts and he also serves as president of the Southeastern Conference Broadcasters Association. Butch Owens has stood behind Gold every week as the spotter since 1989 and Brian Roberts has been keeping up with all the numbers as the statistician for the broadcast since 1998. Jim Carabin oversees the Bama broadcasts in his role as general manager of Crimson Tide Sports Marketing.

BUILT for THE NEXT LEVEL

Alabama's success on the field can only be matched by the program's performance in the NFL Draft since head coach Nick Saban arrived at the Capstone. The Crimson Tide have produced an unmatched 11 first round draft picks over the past four years, including four first round picks in each of the past two drafts. Dating back to the 2009 NFL Draft, the Tide has had 24 players selected overall with 18 of those players coming off the board in the first three rounds.
